His Descripition of England was undertaken by the Express Command of King Charles II. and it was at his Expence that Mr. Ogilly with great exactness performed an Actual Survey and Mensuration by the Wheel, of all the Principal Roads of England; which having with indefatigable Pains and Industry finished, and Delineated the Roads in a Hundred Maps, to which were prefixed Descriptions of all the Places he passed throe, he Dedicated them to his Patron, that Judicious Prince, and Published the whole in a large Volume in Folio, A. D. 1674.

The Work was Received with General Applause, but the Charge of Engraving the Maps had so much Enhanced the Price of the Book, that it came but sew Hands, and especially the Bulk of it rendred it unsit for the use it seems to have been purposely Compiled, I mean the Direction of Travellers. Wherefore, since it is on all Hands granted to be a Work exceeding useful to that purpose, it is hoped, That the reducing it into this Pocket-Volume, will be an acceptable Service to those Persons whose Occasions require them to Travel.

And because the Reader may possibly imagine, That the Book is Abridged in Substance as well as in Bulk; it is necessary to assure him, That the Descriptions here are Verbally the same as in the Folio; except only that in this Edition the Style is rendred more Intelligible as well as Concise, and several Abbreviations (here under Explained) are made use of to bring the Matter into its due Bounds. Thus the Reader has in this small Volume Mr. Ogilby's Descriptions of the Roads of England entire. Nor are the Maps totally wanting, for the Tables at the latter end contain also all the Words (as Names of Places and Directions for Travelling) that are set down in the Maps, which being Ranged in Columns, and the Distances marked, render these Tables as useful as the Maps: And upon the whole, the Traveller is here surnished at small Expence, with a Guide that will conduct him through all the Principal Roads of England.

Great Care has been taken in Correcting the Press: So that we hope no Capital Faults have escaped.

Note, The Distances are all along reckoned in measured Miles and Furlongs, beginning from the Standard in Cornhil; so that the Reader must not be surprized when he finds the Number of Miles set down here, exceed the Common Computation: For Example, from London to York are computed but 150 Miles, whereas by Measure the Distance is 192 Miles. And Computation being very uncertain it must be granted, that no Exactness could be observed, but adhering constantly to the Standard-Mile of 1760 Yards, which contains Eight Furlongs.

The Road from LONDON to ABERISTWITH

On the Sea-Coast in Cardiganshire, South-Wales.

For Illustration of which, we shall first give you the General History as follows,

I. THE Point of Bearing W.N.W. II. The direct Horizontal Dist. 177 M.

The Particulars of the two last Accounts will more plainly appear from the following Table: the two first Columns giving the Reputed Miles, One separately, between Town and Town; the other conjunctly, in a continued Number from London; and the two Last shewing the Dimensurated Miles and Furlongs answerably. The respective Points of Bearing, are all accurately described in the Copper Sculptures.

You pass thro' the several Counties of Middlesex, Buckingham, Oxford, Gloutester, Worcester, Hereford, Radnor and Cardigan, and over the Rivers Coln, Tame, Charwel, Anon, Severn, Teme, Lug, Ithon, Wye, Islamith and Rydal; having a good Road to Wickham, but less pleasant to Prestain, no ill way to Riadergowy; but thence to Aberistmith, generally Boggy, yet almost every where supply'd with good Towns, convenient Entertainment, and delightful Prospects.

We set out from the Standard in Cornhil LONDON, thro' Cornhil, Cheap side, sengate street, Snow-bill and Holborn. Thus leaving the Lord Mayor's Banqueting-loule on the Right, passing Tyburn, and to the N. of Hide-Park and Campden-Park, we come to Kensington Gravel-Pits, at 5 M. a long but discontinu'd Village. Then going thro' Shepherd's Bush V. at 6'7 you enter Asson at 8'2, a noted thorough-tare; at 11'3 pass thro' Hanwell V. on the Brent, and at 12'7 Norcoat; nother small Village. Whence at 15 M. by Hays-Church on the Left, and at 15'7, thro' part of the Town, and over Hellingdon-Heath, you enter Hellingdon tif', and Uxbridg at 18'1, a large Town of 1 M. containing above 200 Houses with a good Market on Thursdays, 2 Fairs, and convenient Inns.

At the end of the Town, you cross Coln flue enter Bucking amfh. and by several traggling Houses on the Road, and Hedgly P. on the Left, descend for 4 F. Whence hro' the Woods at 27 M. you enter Beconsfield or Becon-field, on a dry Hill of 10 great Asc. confissing of about 100 well Built Houses, and affording several good Inns as also a Mt. an Wednes. and 2 Fairs. viz on Candle-mass, Day, and Holy-Thur day.

At 28'5; You come to a Desc. Beset with Woods, and thence by Loud-water V. (a Brook on the R. to the Left) At 32'3 you enter High-Wickham in a pleasant Vally, a well Built Town, containing near 200 Houses, with several good inns, as the Antelope, the Catherine-Wheel, &c. Tis govern'd by a Mayor, Recorder, &c. sends Burgesses to Parl. and has a plentiful Mt. on Fridays, and 2 Fairs. Whence by several Houses on the R. and thro' W. Wickham V. at 347, you ascend at 36'4, for \(\frac{1}{2}\) M. pass thro' a Wood 12 F. and enter Oxfords.

Thus thro' Stoken-Church V. at 39 M. descend at 40'1, for 6 F. with Woods on your lest. Whence you set forward to Tetsworth V. of 2 F. at 44'6, a straight Way leading to Wheatly-Br. over Tame fiv. 1 F. beyond which is the Division of the Roads: That to Islip turning short on the Right, and the Oxford R. proceeding directly to Wheatly, a good Town of 3 F. at 52'3, descending to F. you cross Charwell siv at 55'1 and enter the Ancient City and University of OXFORD, seated on the N. of Thames fiv. where it receives the Charwell.

But keeping the R. toward Istip, you pass by Forest. Hills and Stanton St. John F. to the Right, at 53 M. Whence a direct Way to Islip at 57'3, first crossing Reie or Bure flu. as it appears in the next Plate.

Backward Turnings to be avoided.

I. 5 F. from Oxford, the Left to Heddington. II. 1'3; short of Wheatly, the Left III. 1'5, Beyond Tessmorth, the Right to Henly, and the Left acute. IV. 7 F. beyond Stoken. Ch. the Left to Wickham, the Coach-way. V. At the end of Uxbridg the Left to Smakley. VI. 2 F. short of Hellingdon, the Right to Colebroid; VII. In Hannell, the Right to Brentford. VIII. At Forest-Hill; the forward to Haulton.

Com. Cardigan, South Wales.

Containing 67 Miles I Furlong.

Which it has a Stone-Br. of 6 Atches, a imall Town, but well accommodated; where the two Days Stage-Coach to Worcester takes up the first Night. Hence an indifferent straight Way leads at 60'2, to Blechindon V of 2 F. and at 62'2, you cross Charmel flv. above mention'd, and enter open Arable Land, where at 62'4, the Right-hand Way unites again at 64'5, the Left-hand Way hereabouts, leading to Woodstock a good Mt-Town, about 2 M. distant.

At 65 M. you pass by Wotton-Ch. on the Left, and at 66'3, come to Glimpton V. and thence by the Chequer-Inn, thro' open Arable, at 70 M. to Enston V, beyond which you have a straight open R. to 73'1, where the forward Way leading to Chipping-Norton; turn to the Right, and at 74 M. by a House call'd Chappel on the Heath, 6 F. further, leave Chipping Norton \(\frac{1}{2}\) M. to the Left, a large but not Compact Town, except about the Mt-place, yet a Corp. governed by Bayliss Gr. Keeping a Court for Actions under 4 l. and having a good Mt. on Wednesdays.

At 75'2. descend a Hill of 7 F. leaving Rolright-Ch. on the Right, and ascending for 5 F. leave little Rolright on the Left, in which Par. but 1 M. to the Left, stands that circular Monument of great Stones, said to be Erected in Memory of a Battel there fought by Rollo the Dane: Then by Long Compton on the Right, and Little Compton on the Left, you pass between the Counties of Oxford and Warwick. At 69'2, descend a Hill of 4 F. and at 81'3, come to the 4 Shire Stone, the well-known Limits of Oxfordshire to the S. and S.E. Warwick to the N. and N.E. part of Worcestersh. included within Glocestersh. to the S.W. and Glocestersh. to the W. and S.W. Here bear to the Left, thro' a morass-way at 83'2 to Morton in the Marsh, vulgo, Morton-Henmarsh, of 2 F. on the Fossway, a good Thorough-fare, which had formerly a Mt. on Tuesdays, now only 2 Fairs, viz at Lady-Day, and Alballon-tide.

At 84'6, afcend Broadway Hill of 5 F. on which stands, Burton on the Hill V. of 2 F. having enter'd the Downs, call'd Broadway Hills, 3 F. beyond, leave Burton's Ash on the Left, where you have a very fair Prospect; and at 88'4. by a Cross Hand for Direction. 7 F. farther, descend Broadway Hill, to the Town of Broadway, at 90'4. well-built and 5 F. long, where are several good Inns, and tho' no Market-Town yet plentifully supply'd from Campden and Evesholm.

Hence an indifferent straight way, for the most part open Arable, leaving Child's Wickham on the Lest, leads at 96'3. to Wickenford, a Brook so call'd, where you enter Worcester Wercestersh. and a little after, the Vale of Evesbolm, so eminent for its Fertility, within 2 M. of the Town. At 100'6, enter a Lane leading at 102'1, to Avon stv. passable by a large Stone br. of 6 great and several small Arches. The next Town is Pershore, of 7 F. in a Plain, said to be Built by Egelward Duke of Dorset under K. Edgar. It contains near 300 Houses and 2 Parish Churches, has 2 Weekly Mts. on Tuesd. and Saturd. and one annual Fair on the 15th of June; 'Tis somewhat decay'd since the Dissolution of its ancient Abby, but now in a fair way of retrieving its prission Lustre.

At 103'4, pass by Alesborough, a House on the Left, giving title to the Lord Coventry, thence thro' Stouton V. at 107 M. the R. direct, and mostly enclos'd, brings you at 111'4 to the Suburbs, and by the way of Sudbury-Gate, to the City of WORCESTER, of which take this short Account.

Tis a City and County of it felf, pleasantly and commodiously seated on the E. Banks of Severn flv. over which it has a fair Stone-br. with a Tower; being a Place of great Antiquity, call'd Branonium by Antoninus and Ptolemy, Caer-wrangon by the Britans, and Vigornia by the Latins. It enjoys great Privileges and Immunities granted them by several K. even before the Conquest, and tho' a plentiful Sharer in Calamities; yet at this day remains a City of Extraordinary Beauty and Splendor; fending Burgeffes to Parl. Honour'd with the Title of a Marquifate in the Right Noble Henry Marq. and E. of VVorcester; and Dignify'd with an Episcopal See, succeffively posses'd by 88 Bishops. 'Tis govern'd by a Mayor, 6 Aldermen, a Sheriff and 2 Chamberlains, Elected out of 24 principal Citizens or Capital Counsellours, 48 Capital Citizens, or Common-Counsellors, with a Recorder, Town-Clerk and two Coreners, besides 13 Constables, a Sword bearer and 4 Serjeants at Mace. 'Tis divided into 7 Wards containing besides the Cathedral, 9 Parish-Ch. not reckoning St. Michael's and St. Fohn's adjoining, and 3 'Tis adorn'd with 3 Grammar-Schools and 7 Hospitals liothers Demolish'd. herally endow'd; a fair water House and a well contriv'd Key. It enjoys a great Trade especially for Clothing, and its Mts. Wednesd. Frid and Saturd are very confiderable, especially the last, for Cattel, Flesh, Fish and all forts of Provisions,

From Worcester over the Br. thro'St Jobn's over Laughern stv. an enclos'd way leads by Earl's-Court on the Right, thro'a Wood: by Cotheridg Ch. on the Lest, and at 117'4 thro' Broadways V. Then by Todnam-Chapel on the Right, at 119'4, cross Teme alias Temde stv. over a Wood-Br. and by Lulsey-Ch. to the Lest, at 120'3. you come to Herefords. LONDON to ABERISTWITH, in Cardigansbire.

PLATE. III. and Last.

Commencing at Bromyard, in Com. Hereford, and Extending to Aberishwith, aforefaid. Containing 74 M. 6 F.

These Turnings are to be avoided.

N the Second Plate, We came at 124'5 to Bromyard, alias Bramyard, a Town chiefly on the Road, containing near 200 Houles, with a good Mt. on Mand. for Cattel, Corn, &c. and 5 Fairs, viz. on Lad-yday, Holy-Rood. Witfon-Mond. Thursd. before St. James, and Thursd. before St. Luke. Whence an indirect way leads at 137'3, to Bridenbury V. beyond which a straight R. conveys you at 130'6, thro' Hockley V. and leaving Humber 6F. on the Left, at 134'6 to Eaton V. on the Left. Two F. farther, croffing Lug flv. over a Stone-Br. of 3 Arches, you enter Leominster, vulgo Lemster, at 135'5, of only 4 F. this way, but a Mile transverse; call'd in British, Lhan Rieni, i.e. Templum Monialium, a more probable Etymology than that of Leonis Monasterium, from a Lyon appearing to a Monk in a Vision; tis a well-built Town, feated in a rich Soil, and upon the Riv. Lug, which in form of a Semi-Circle waters the N. and E. fide of it: It contains (tho'but one Parith-Ch.) about 400 Houses, and 6 Wards, viz. Eaton-freet, High-freet, Cross and Pinfly, Middle-marsh and Lorger-marsh, is govern'd by a Bayliff, Recorder, 5 Justices, and 24 Capital Burgesses; besides 12 Constables; Elects Parl.Men, and has a very great Mt, on Fridays for Cattel, Corn, Gc. and 4 Fairs, viz. on St. Simon and Jude, St. Peter, St. Bartholomem, and on Tuefday after Midlent Sunday: 'Tis more especially noted for its fine Wooll, call'd Lemster Ore, as also for its pure Wheat and fine Flower, and has feveral good Inns.

The main Body of the Town lies upon the Right, but poceeding at 136'2, leave the forward way on the Left to Webley, and an enclos'd R, by two Honfes on the Right, conveys you directly to Keinson; but bearing to the Right at 138'2. pass by Kingsland-Chand at 140'1, thro' Kingsland V. of 4F. and at 142'4, thro' Easterton, V. Whence at 144'4 descending 2 F. and by straggling Houses, and a great Hill on the Left; at 146'6, Wadels siv. pass thro' Comb V. enter Radnors. at 148'3, and 1 F. farther Prestain on Lug siv in a Pleasant and Rich Valley, in Welsh, Lhan Andre. 'Twas formerly a small Tillage, now a large and well-built Town of 4 F. In this Place the Assizes are kept for the County of Radnor; It has a good Mt. on Saturd. especially for Barly, which is here Malted in great quantities, and two Fairs, viz. on St. Andrew and Midsummer Day, with several convenient Inns.

Hence at 151'3, thro' Discoyd V. and 153'3, thro Cascob V. ascend a Hill of 6 F. and by Blethuagh-Forest, and Blethuagh-Ch. on the Right, at 154'7, descend 7 G.

6 F. 7 G. whence over a Heath of 6 F. the R. ascends again 5 F and a somewhat less Descriptions you to a straight inclosed way, passing by a sew Houses, and crossing Comaron str. at 160 M. beyond which, passing over another Hill about 4 F. high, a 161'5, you come to Ithon str. salling into the Wye above Bealt; and at 163'2, cross Clowedock str. which falls into the Ithon; Whence repeated Asc. and Desc. leaving Nantmel on the Lest, lead at 168'5, to Dulas str. beyond which lies a straight R. to Riadergomy, vulgo Raihader, at 170'3 a Town of 3 F. in a Mountainous part of the Country, and upon Wye str. 'Tis govern'd by a Bayliss, has a Mt. on Wednson and 4 Fairs, viz. on St. fames's day, August 10, 14 Days before Michaelmass, and 3 Weeks after Alhallontide; with two Inns, the Sman and the Lion. At the End of the Town, over a Wood-Br. you cross the Wye, and 5 F. sarther, come to the soot of an Eminent Asc, of 10 F. which at 174'4, descends 6 F. and having left the inclosed way 1 M. on this side Riadergomy, the R. continues altogether open as well as Mountainous and Boggy, to Aberistmith.

But forward from the said Desc. Eland flv. on the Lest; at 179'1, cross Ecomistivith Brook and enter Cardigansh. ascending a Hill of 6 F. an equal Desc. Then passing Moorish ground, by some Lead mines, and a House on the Right, at 183'5 call'd Mewen Glowth, a woody Desc. leads into Brunant V. in a Valley: Whence by some straggling Houses on next Asc. and along the succeeding part of the R, which still lies thro a kind of Morass; at 192'5 you touch upon Ridol slv. on the Right, and at 194,2. descend 12 F. Then cross the Ridal at 196'7, and 2 F. farther, come to Llaubadern-Vaur of 6 F. on the R. a well built Town with a fair Church, formerly an Episcopal See, and now the Parish-Ch. to ABERISTWITH, which you enter at 198'7, being 4 F. long.

Aberistwith or Aberesthmy, on the Ridal, near its Confluence with the Istmith, where it falls into the Sea, imply'd by the prefix'd Aber, i.e. Osium Flaminis was formerly a Wall'd-Town, fortify'd with a now ruinous Castle; and contain'd many more Houses than it does at present, yet it is a Corp. Gov ern'd by a Mayor, Recorder, &c. sending one Burgess to Parl. and enjoying a good Mr. on Mond. for Corn, Wooll. &c. and two Fairs, viz. on Mond. before Easter, and on Decemb. 18. Altho' there are scarce 100 Houses in this Town, yet it is noted for it's Fishing Trade for Herrings, Cod, &c.

Backward Turnings to be avoided.

With the Continuation from Arundel to Chichefter, thus,

From Arundel	Comp.	Meafure,
to Chichefter	08 M.	10'4.

Middlesex, Surrey and Sussex include the whole R. and the Thames, Mole, Oke, Arun and Lavant are the principal Riv. past over; affording an indifferent Way, but good Entertainment.

The Road We describe, is by Darking, yet some will pass by Horsham 3 or 4. M. to the Lest, and others thro' the more frequented way, on the Lest to Darking by Stretham, Micham and Sutton.

Thus much in general; the Turnings to be avoided are these that follow?

From the Standard in Cornhil, London, along Grace church-street, Fish street-hill, over London bridge and thro' Southwark, passat 1'4 to Newington of 2 F. at the end of which, the acute Way on the Right to Kingston, Guilford and Portsmouth branches out, and another at the Gallows, to Stretham, and thence to Lewes and Newbaven, by Croydon, or to Arundel, by Horsbam or Darking.

Hence over Clapham-H. you come at 6'4, to Towting-beck V. and at 7 M. thro' Towting graveny V. of 2 F. Whence an indirect way leads at 10'2 to Moredon another small Village, and leaving Non-such on the Left, sometime a stately House built by H. VIII. you pass thro Ewel at 14 M. a Mt. Town of about 2 F. and at 15'4 thro' part of Ebesham, vulgo Epsom, a Town much frequented for its Medicinal Waters; the Well lying 3 F. on the Right at 16'5. Then going on, a 16'3, enter Leatherhead of 3 F. whence bearing to the Left, passing at 21'6, thro' Mickleham V F. 1 M. farther, cross Mole sw. near the Place where it has a subterranean Passage for a Mile or two, and enter Darking, alias Darkin, at 24'1 a large Town on a Branch of the Mole, with a Noted Market on Thursd. especially for Fowl.

From Darkin over a Hill of 3 F. succeeded by another Asc. and woody on each ade, you come to Cold-barbor-Hill asc. 3 F. but desc. 1 M. and thence at 30 M

At 52'2, over Houghton-Br. cross Arun flv. 4 F. farther pass thro Houghton of z F. and after an Asc. of 3 F. you come to ARUNDEL at 55'z, by Mary gate, thence to the Br. 6 F. 'Tis an ancient Borough-Town, on the N. W. of the Arun, over which it has a sair Wooden-Br. where Ships of 100 Tun may ride: It is govern'd by a Mayor, 12 Burgesses, a Steward, &c. has a great Mt. on Thursd. a small one on Saturd. and 4 Fairs, viz. on May 3. Aug. 10. Septemb. 14. and Decemb. 6. It enjoys a good Trade, several Ships being here built, as the Society and Mary, &c. The Castle, famous in the Saxon Times, having the Honor of an Earldom entail'd upon the Possessor of it, is seated on the E. of the Tame, and reputed I

M. in compass.

From Arundel thro' the old Fish Market and Water gate (by Hookswood on the left, and Arundel great Park on the Right, (the little one lying betwen Marygate and the Castle) at 2'7, desc. Amsford-Hill of 4 F. and at 4 M. over Mackrels-Br. then by Half-way-Tree, thro' Crockerbil V. at 6'5. Thence by Boxley-Church at 7 M. and Sir Will. Morley's House on the Right, and Tangmere on the Left, at 8'2 pass thro Maudline V. till by Hampnet. Ch. on the Right, and the place on the Left you cross Lavant flv. and at 9'6, enter the Suburbs of CHICHESTER, seated in a Plain, and on the faid River near its Mouth, a City indifferent large, containing 4 Parish-Ch. within the Walls, besides the Cathedral, One without E. Gate, and another without W. Gate, both demolish'd in the late Wars. This City has 4 Gates looking towards the 4 Cardinal Points, to which the 4 principal Streets lead, and are call'd E-fireet, W-fireet. N-fireet and S-fireet. 'Tis Govern'd by a Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, &c. fends Burgesses to Parl. has two good Mts. on VVednesd. and Saturd. the greatest for Fish in the County, and ; Fairs, viz. on April 23. Whitfun Mond. Middlesex, Hartfords. Gambridgshire, Huntingdonshire, Rutlandshire, Lincolnshire, Nottingbamshire, Torkshire, the Bishoprick of Durham and Northumberland are the Counties past thro? And Lea, Granta, Owse, Nine, Welland, Witham, Trent, Meden, Idle, Whitwater, Dun, Went, Are, Wharf, Nid, Tour or Owse, Swale, Wisk, Tees, Skern, Were, Tyne, Blith, Wanspeck, Ale, Warne and Tweed, are the Riv. crost over. Tis one of the most frequented R. of the Kingdom, tho' none of the best way; for after the first 20 or 30 M. its generally so bad, that there was a certain late Imposition upon Travellers, for 3 Years, at Stilton and elsewhere, of about a Penny for a Horse, &c. toward the Repair of that part of it; yet it affords good Entertainment at moderate rates. The Computation of Post-Miles is the same as the vulgar Estimation; only from Royston to Huntingdon they acount 17 M. and from Tork to Northallerson but 24 M.

Hus the whole R. is comprised in 5 Plates, the first ending at Stilton in Huntingdonsh. the 2d. at Tuxford in Nottinghamsh. the 3d. at the City of York; the 4th. at Ghester in the Street, in the Bishoprick of Durham, and the 5th. at Barwick; We begin with the first Plate containing 69'2, and the following Turnings are to be avoided.

From the Standard in Cornhil, along Bishopsgate-street within, thro' Bishopsgate, and Bishopsgate street without, you come at 4 F. to the Barrs; and enter Shorditch, leaving London at 1'2 and Hossan on the Left, at 2'2, enter Kingsland V. of 2 F. and 1 M. farther, Newington V. having a long Street on the left toward Islington; whence an easy Alc. of 4 F. call'd Standsord-Hill, often frequented by High waymen, and equally descending leads at 5 M. to Tottenham High-Cross, a place much resorted to by the Citizens: Hence reiterated Buildings extends at 6'5, to Tottenham-street, and at about 7 M. to Edmonton a long discontinued Village.

At 8'5; you come to Ponders-End, and soon after to Lackmore-End, small Villages, and at 10 M. Enfield Wash V. whence leaving Tuttle-street one the left, at 11'6, you enter Hartfordsh, and a little farther, Waltham-Cross, a Post-Town, and a very good Thorough fare, with 2 or 3 Convenient Inns. It extends about 3 F, and a little beyond (the Gibbet on the Right) Theobalds the King's House, Pleasantly seated appears 2 F. on the left.

At 13 M. pals Cross-Brook, & M. farther. Turners-hill V. and at 14'1, Cheftenfreet 3 F. long; whence straggling Houses lead to Wormley End at 16'1 & M. be:

yond croffing the New Riv. and 2 F. after entring Brokton Village.

At 17'6, you come to Hod/don of 6 F. near the River Lea, a good Thorough-fare Town, with a well stor'd Mt. on Thur/d. and one Fair on St. Peter's day. Hitherto the R. appears like an entire Street of continued Houses Travelling forward leave Hayly on the Lest, and over a Hill, Pass to Amwell at 20'5, from which and Chadwel, the New-Riv, is convey'd to London: The several Ways on the lest hereabouts, lead to Hartford, but 2 M. distant, the Shire-Town, Govern'd by a Mayor, 9 Burgesses, 69'c. Electing Parl. Men, and having a Mt. on Saturd. this Town formerly had 5 Churches, now reduc'd to 3, and is much decay'd since the diverting the great Road from it.

At 21'4 enter Ware of 1 M. croffing there first the New-Riv. and next the Lea, which at about 1 M. distance has accompanied you the last 14 M. Tis a Large Town full of Inns; with a good Mt. on Tuesd. and much talk'd of for its great Bed: Whence by Wades-Mill, Cross Mimer stv. pass thro' High-Cross End, and Collier's End, and at 27'2, enter Puckeridg alias Puckrich, a good Thorough-sare of 3 F. where the R. on the Right, leads to Standon a Mt-Town 1 M. distant, and just beyond, the great R. to Cambridge, &c. appears on the Right.

At 29 M. repais the Mimer, and at 31'5, come to Bunting ford, a good Thorough-fare Town of 4 F. with a M. on Mond. 6 F. beyond which, you enter New Chipping: and at 34 Miles Buckland, 2 Villages. Whence an easie Desc. leads at 38 M. to Royston, a large Town of 4 F. seated on the Erming street in a fertile Vale, and part in Cambridgs. tull of good Inns, with a great Corn-Market on Wednesd.

At 39'7, enter Cambridg sh. and at 40'6 pass Kneesworth V. At 43'2 Cross Grant alias Cam stv. and at 44'5, come to Arrington another Village; Whence a straight R by Wimple and Congrave on the Right, and thro'a Cops at 48 M. brings you at 49'3 to Holm, and at 49'6, Caxion, of 3 F. seated in the Clay; a Post-

Town, and good Thorough-fare, with a Mt. on Tuesdays.

At 51'7 pals thro' Papworth Everard V. of 2 F. and leaving Nether Papworth or Papworth-Agnes \(\frac{1}{2} \) M. on the Left, enter Huntingdonsh. at 53'5. Leaving Hilton 4 F. to the Right, and Beggars Bush, on a rising ground on the left; a small Desc. leads to Godmanchester, at 56'2 of 4 F. a Place of great Antiquity, and a large Corp. seated in a fertile Soil, and on Owse fiv. much addicted to Husbandry: Having crost the Riv. enter Huntington, heretofore containing 15 Parish Ch. now only four; Govern'd by a Mayor and 12 Aldermen, Electing Parl. Men: 'Tis the Shire-Town, has a good Mt. on Saturd. and gives Title to the Right Honourable Theophilus Earl of Huntingdon.

At 58 M. leave the Town; at 59'7, pass thro' Great Stuckley V. of 2 F. and M. farther, Little Stuckley: At 62 M. bearing to the Right, a direct R. indifferently enclosed and open by Stone-gate Hole, and Stone-gate on the Left, and St. Andrew's Chappel and Cannington on the Right, brings you at 69'1, to Stilton, as in Plate II.

Then enter Milsord V. at 174'7, of 2 F. and at 175'7, Sherborn, near M. long, a good Town, with a Mt. on Saturd. and an Eminent Free-School, noted for its Production of Cherries, &c.

At 177'5 leave Barkstone and at 178; M. Scartbingwell-Hall, each 2 F. on the Right, and at 179'5 enter Tolton vulgo Towton V. of near 2 F. where on Palm-Sunday Anno. 1461 the House of Tork, after a dubious Conslict, obtain'd a Signal Victory over the Lancastrian Party, both Armies consisting in 100000 Men, of whom 35000 are Reported to be Kill'd on the place.

At 182'3, over a fair Stone-Br. cross Warf or Wherf fiv. and enter Tadcaster, the Calcaria in Antoninus, to which, answers an adjacent Hill call'd Kelebar; a Town of 3 F.well provided for the Reception of Travellers: It has a Mt. on Thursd. and is noted for the abundance of Lime-stone here digg'd up. Whence by Streton Hall 3E, to the Right, 1M. farther, the Street-way from Tadcaster falls in on the Left, and 2F, beyond, viz. at 185'7, cross thro Street-Honses V.6 F. to the W. of which is Bilbrough. Then passing between Askham and Knapton on the Left, and Coppen-Thorp and Bishops-Thorp on the Right, at 190'4, you come to Ring-Houses V.of 2E, and by the Gallows and 3 Wind mills, enter the Suburbs of Tork at 191'5, Mickle-Gate appears 3F, farther, whence you have \(\frac{1}{2}\)M. to Owse-Br. and as far beyond; to the Pavement or middle of the City; which well deserves a particular Description.

TORK, the 2d. City of the Kingdom, anciently call'd Eboracum or Eburacum, by the Romans; Everwic, and Eoferwic, by the Saxons; Caer Effroc by the VVelst; Caer Ebranc by Nennius; and Brigantium by Ptolemy; as being the Chief City of the Brigantes; takes its Name from Tour or Mrus flu. which passes thro' it, q. d. juxta Mrum; Tis a place of great Antiquity, said to be built by Ebrank a British K.980 Years before Christ's Nativity, whence some wou'd also deduce the word Eboracum; of great Esteem in the Time of the Romans, being a Colony and station of their sixth Legion call'd Vistrix; famous for the Death and Funeral Exequies of Severus and Constantius, and the Birth and Inauguration of Constantine the Great, the First Christian Emperor; Preserving and Encreasing its Lustre even to a Miracle, under the various changes of the Saxons, Danes and Normans; and comprehending temp Edw. Conf.6 Divisions or Wards, and therein 1628 Mansson Houses; but a plentiful sharer in Calamities, both by Sword, Fire and Pestilence.

'Tis pleasantly seated in a large Valley in the midst of the Shire, at the Confluence of Owle and Fols flu. in a tertile Soil and healthful Air; being the Decus & Tutamen of the Northern Parts: It's well-built, tho' for the most part of Wood; Adorn'd with many fair Structures Publick and Private; and Fortify'd with a Castle and strong Walls: It extends S.W. and N.E. and as much transversly; is divided into 4 Wards, within which are contain'd, besides the Cathedral, 32 Ch. of which 28 in present Use: 'Tis Govern'd by a Lord Mayor(as the City of London) 12 Aldermen Justices of the Peace, 2 Sheriffs, 24 Prime Council-Men, 8 Chamberlains, 72 Common Council-Men, a Recorder, Town-Clerk, Sword-Bearers, and Common-Serjeant. It enjoys large Immunities, Confirm'd by the Successive Ks. of England from H. II. Made a County Incorporate by R. II. including 36 V. and Hamlets, call'd the Ainfly, all on the W. of the Owle. Elects Burgesses to Parl and is Honour'd by giving Title to several Princes of the Royal Blood, Particularly to the late K. James II. 'Tis well frequented by Merchants, as seated on the Navigable Owse, dividing it into 2 Parts, conjoin'd by a stately Br. of , Arches, fof which the middlemost, is perchance the fairest in England. It has 4 Mts. viz. on Tuesd. Thursd. Frid, Saturd, well provided of Flesh, Fish, Fowl, Fowl, &c. And is the Seat of an Arch-Bishop: The old Cathedral, begun by Edwin K. of the Northumbers Anno. 527. finish'd by his Successor Oswald, and Dedicated to St. Peter, being Burnt; the Foundation of the present, was laid by Fohn Roman, and compleated by his Son Fohn, William Metron. and Thoresby Arch-Bishops thereof, assisted by the Nobility and Gentry of the Country, especially the Percies and Vavasors: 'Tisa large Magnisicent and Stately Pile of Building, with a curious Chapter-House on the N. side, of Exquisite Workmanship.

The Continuation of the Road from LONDON to BARWICK. Com. Northumbr.

Commencing at the City of YORK and Extending to Chester in the Street Com.

Dunelm. Containing 76 Miles 4 Furlongs.

the Standard in Cornbil London, to Micklegate on the S. W. of that City 192 M. and to the middle of the City about 192'4: By the direct superficial Protraction of the said R. about 176 M. but the direct Horizontal distance not above 162 M. This we mention, for that Mr. Norwood, making the said Horizontal Distance 177 M. stated thence a Degree of Latitude at 69's English M. which Mr. Oughtred, by an Angle to the Center of the Earth, reduces to 66'25, and we incline to believe will not prove above 63 Miles.

Our Dimensuration is continu'd from Micklegate aforesaid, doubling 3 F. of the R. from London, passing between Popleton on the Right, and Rufford and Hessow on the Lest. Crossing Nid flv. at 199'7 over Skip-Br. 1M. below Wilsthorn-Hall, leaving Kirk-Hamertom 2 F. to the lest, and Passing thro' Green-Hamerton V. at 21'5, the Road being hitherto direct, indifferently Enclos'd and open-

Hence to the Right, leave Whinkley 2 F. on the Left, and little Osborn as much on the Right, between which and great Osborn, about \(\frac{1}{2}\) M. on the same Hand, springs Owse fiv. which a little below meets the Your; rising near the Confines of this County with Westmoreland, and passing thro York, after its Confluence with the Trent, it bears the Name of Humber, denoting according to Leland as much as Aber i. e. Ostium stuminis: But going forward, pass by Branton Green, 2 F. to the Right, and and between Grafton and Over-Dunsford, by a direct way at 209'2 to Borough, bridg, vulgo Borrowbriggs, of 3 F. on the S. fide of the Tour, over which it has a tair Stone-Br. The Town is not large, yet commodious, Electing Parl. Men, and having a Mt. on Saturd. The straight R. from Ferribriggs by Wetherby falling in here on the Left, laves the Traveller 9 M. of what the way by Tork enlarges his journey: Half a M. to the E. appears in the Valley Aldburgh or Aldborough V. Isurium in Antoninus, an eminent City under the Romans, and near it certain Pyramidal Stones, supposed to be Erected by them as a figual of Victory, but

The Continuation of the Road from LONDON to BARWICK, Com. Northumbr. PART V. and Last.

Commencing at Chester in the Street, in Episcop. Dunelm. and Extending to Barwick aforesaid. Including 71 Miles.

In which the following Turnings are to be avoided.

N the fourth Part, we came to Chefter in the Street, fallely reputed the Mid-way between Durbam and Newcastle; (from which last, 'tis farther by zM) so call'd from its Situation on the Via publica; and by the Saxons, Conceaster; whence Camden Supposes it the Condercum in the Notitia; seated on the W. of the Were; and overlooking Lumley-Castle, the ancient Seat of the Lord Lumley about 6 F. diffant on the other fide of the Riv. 'Tis a good Thorough-fare of about 4 F. and affords convenient Reception: Thence at 268'4 about 6 F. farther, pais by Pelos-Hall, fomewhat to the Right, and keeping the Street-way which is direct, at 271 M. leave Birtley, vulgo Buckley, on the same Hand : Then at 272'7 turning to the Left, two small Desc. lead at 274 M. to a Beacon, and 5 F. farther to a Wind-mill on the Right: Whence an easie Desc. extends at 275'6 to Gateshead, alias Gate side, as it were the Suburbs of Newcastle; a Town of great Antiquity, confisting of a fair Street of 4 F. 'Tis leated on the Banks of the Tine, and call'd by the Saxons Gatesheved, i. e. Capra Caput, or Goat's head, perchance from an Inn with fuch a Sign. Whence a flately Stone-Br. over the Navigable Tine, separating the Counties of Durham and Northumberland, leads you to NEW-CASTLE, of which take this brief Account.

This Town Situate on the S fide of a notable Alc. before the Conquest was call'd Monkchester, as belong to the Monks; but at Present New-Castle from the Castle built there by Robert eldest Son of William the Gonqueror. Tis govern'd by a Mayor, 12 Aldermen, a Recorder. Sc. sends Burgestes to Parl. is the Shire-Town for Northumberland; and gaveTitle to Will. Cavendish lateDuke, Marq. and Earl of New-castle; It counts 4 Parish-Ch. besides one in Gateshead; has a fair Exchange and Custom-House; is encompass'd with a strong Wall and Gates; but the Castle on the E is now ruin'd: It has two great Mts. on Tuesd. and Saturd. and indeed, is a most famous Emporium, rich and populous, very much frequented by Merchants, Sc. carrying on a great Trassick both by Sea and Land, but more especially noted for its wonderful Trade in Coals, of which it transmits some thousands of Sail yearly to the City of London and other Parts, Domestick and Foreign.

At 286'3 pass thro' Stannington V.os 2F. and leaving Netherton on the Right, a Direct Road lies, by a Castle on the Left, to Wanspeck at 290'7 the Ch. and Castle adjoyning on the Left. Here cross Wanspeck stv. which taking its rise about the middle of the County, and having a little above received the Font about, M. below, falls into the Sea. Then enter Morpeth, a Corp. govern'd by two Baylists, which sends Burgesses to Parl. and has a great Mt. on Wednesd for Cattel, Corn. God Tis a Post-Town, and a very good Thorough-fare, lying about 4 F. on the Road.

Leave the Town at 291'6 where a R. generally open, and somewhat more indirect, leading by Heborn and Espley on the Lest, and Tritlington on the Right; crosses Line sto. and leaving Causey on the Lest, passes a Brook or two, and some Houses at 299'7. Whence you come to a Village at 301'2 of 2 F. and there cross the Cocket sto. which rising on the Confines of this County and COTLAND, and running Eastward, receives the Uswey, Ridley and Ridland, and by Warkworth Castle, over against Coket-Island, discharges it self into the Sea.

A quarter of a M. beyond the Riv. appears Felton V. of 2F. whence by Attom on the Right, and Newton on the Moor contiguous on the Left; pals between Snipebonfe and Whittel, thro' a Cops, and over a Rivulet or two, and at 309'6 enter Alnwick, vulgo Anwick, near Alne, Ale or Alon flv. not above 2 F. on the R. yet a good Thorough-tare, having once a large Castle now ruin'd, and near it a decay'd Abby. It has a Mt. on Saturd. and here Anno 1092, Malcolm K. of Scots making an Inroad into Northumberland was Kill'd with Edward his Son, and his Army defeated by Robert Mowbray Earl of that County. And Anno 1174, William K. of Scots Invading England with Soooo Men, was July 7, here Encountred, his Army Routed, himself made Priloner, sent to London, and by K. Henry carty'd to Roan in Normandy, paying 4000 l. Ransom.

At 3 10'2 cross the Alne, which rising 10M, to the Wounloads it self into the Sez' about 4M. to the E. Hence scatter'd Woods and easie Desc. bring you to an open way, leading thro' Carleton at 3 15'6 till leaving Tunston-Castle, Ellingham and Newsted on the Right; at 3 19'6 enter Warnford V. of 2 F. One M. farther, leave Edderston, alias Atherston 1 F. on the Right, and 1½M. farther Mowsewel 2 F. on the Lest. Whence by Newsands ¼ M. on the Right, at 323'4 enter Belford, a Thoroughfare, and Post Town. Then by the Chappel at 324 M. close on the Lest, and Middleton and Detcham on the same Hand; at 328 M. pass by Buckton contiguous on the Right 1½M. distant from the Sea, and at 329'4 Fenwick V. 2 F. on the Lest.

At 331'2 You come to Hagger fron V, of 2F. thence by Broom-House, and Brigg-

Mill on the Left, and Chefwich and Skrimerston on the Right; (the last within M. of the Sea) at 338'2 thro' Tweedmouth. Then croffing the famous Riv. Tweed, over a long Br. of several fair Arches, at 339 M. enter BARWICK, 2 F. more leading to the Crois, where our Computation ends.

Barrick alias Berwick, anciently Tuesis, imports, according to Leland, as much as Aberwic, i.e Urbs adostium Fluminis; but Somner rather deduces it from Berewic, in Saxon, fignifying Corn Town, of which, see Mr. Camden at large. 'Tis not so Eminent for Anciquity, as for being a Town and County of it self; and included in Northumberland, the figurate on the N-side of the Riv. Tweed. 'Tis a Place of great Strength, having the Sea on the E. and S.E. and the Riv Tweed on the S.W. encompass'd with a Wall, and fortify'd with a strong Castle: 'Tis large, populous and well-built; Govern'd by a Mayor, Bayliss and Burgess; Elects Parl-Men; and has a very great Mt. on Saturd. for Corn, Salmon, &c.

Packward Turnings to be avoided.

Middlesex, Buckingbamsh. Barksh. Wiltsh. Glocestersh. and Somersetsh. contains the whole R. which crosses the Riv. Brent, Coln, Thames, Kennet and Avon: attording in general, a very good way, and frequent Townsand Thorough-fares The Post-Office makes this one of their six Principal Rs. of England, and branches it to the Devizes, &c. on the Lest, and to South-Wales, Hereford and Oxf. on the Right.

HF whole R. is comprised in two Parts, the first ending at Marlborough in Wilish. and the second at Bristol, continued to Hunispil in Somerseish. We begin with Part I. containing 75'3, in which, the following Turnings are to be avoided, viz.

In the Way by Hungerford. At 64'4 the Right to Oxford. At 67'0 the Right.

From the Standard in Cornhil, thro' Cornhil, Cheapfide, St. Paul's Church-yard, Ludgate-street, Ludgate-hill, Fleet-street, Temple-Bar, the Strand, the Hay Marker and Pickadilly, pass to Knights bridge, Kensington and Hammersmith, well frequented by the Gentry and Neighbouring Citizens. Afterwards enter Brentford at 9'1 both the Old and New seated on Brent slv. at its Consuence with the Thames.

Whence by Sion-House, on the Left, over Small-beer-Green, enter Hounstow at 12'1 a good Thorough-fare of 4F at the end of which, the direct way to Stanes leads to Southampton. Exeter, or any the included Places: On the way extending over Hounstow Heath, and distinguish'd into 1, 2 and 3 M.-Heaths; at 14'5 go by Baron Windham's House on the Right, and at 16'6 enter Longford V. of 4F. where passing 4 separated Branches of the Coln, at 18'5 cross the Coln it self.

Here enter Bucking hamsh and Colebrook (the Pontes in Antoninus) a very good Through fare, of about 4F. with a Mt. on Wednesd at the end of which, lies the straight way to Windsor; which at Slow 3'4 beyond, appears at Right Angles on the Left, at 2 M. distance. From Slow a level R. leads to Maidenhead, first crossing the Thames at 27 M. and entring Barksh and 3 F. farther the Town extended 4 M. on the R. It has a good Mt. on Wednesd and a Key to which Barges come from London.

A quarter of a M. farther, the great R. to Glocester extends to the Right, whence thro the Commons and Woods call'd Maidenhead-Thicket, pass Harebatch, and at 35'1 enter Twisord V. of 4 F. whence a pleasant wav leads at 39'7 to Reading, so call'd from the Confluence of the Rivers, as seated on the Navigable Kennet near its Instruction to the Thames, here cross'd by 7 Bridges; the fairest and largest Town in the County, with 3 Parish-Ch. 'Tis a Co.p. electing Parl-Men, Govern'd by a Mayor, 12 Aldermen, &c. Eminent for Cloathing and Malting, and once beautify'd with a rich Monastery and strong Castle.

Having left the Town on the Right, at 40'4 a pleasant Lane extends to Theal, vulgo Dheal, q. d. the Vale, a V. with 2 or 3 good Inns, at '44'7. Thence passing Inglessield, the Marquess of Winshester's Seat near 1 M on the Right, a good Way thro' broad Lanes and open Arable Lands, leads at 50'2 to Woolhampton, vulgo Woollington. Whence a pleasant Way and Prospect to Thatsham, vulgo Thatcham, at 53'4, 3F. long and a good Thorough fare. Afterwards having touch'd upon the Kennet, at 56'5 enter that part of Newbury, call'd Spinhamland, the Relicts of the ancient Spine, whose Ruins gave Rise to the present new Town.

At 57'4 passby Spein on the Left, and Donnington Castle on the Right; Thence between Graven P. and Wichham-H. at 62'2 come to the parting of the Rs. The Left is the Post-way by Hungersord, but the Right the more usual, being both the Coach and Plow-way by Ramesbury; so that at 65'3 you enter Wilish and at 66'1 Chilton a Thorough-fare of 4 F. Then leaving it on the Right, and somewhat farther, Littlecot on the Left; at 69'1 pass thro' Ramesbury V. of 4 F. and 1 M. farther by Ramesbury-place, belonging to the Earl of Pembroke; a less pleatant way which at 73'6 thro' Middenhal V. brings you at 75'1 to Marlborough; as in Part II.

If by Hungerford: then keeping the directer way at 62'2 aforesaid, cross the Kenner, and come to that part of Hungerford call'd Charnham-street at 64'4; leaving which, you enter Wilish, and by Froxfield on the Right, pass thro' Savernake-Forest, and over a considerable Asc. At 73'4 enter Marlborough, and repassing the Kenner, fall in with your other Rat 73'7 shortning your Journey this way 11 F.

Retrograde Turnings to be avoided.

The Road from LONDON to BRISTOL. PART II.

Cammencing at Marlborough in Wiltsh and Extending to the High-Cross in BRISTOL; Containing 39 Miles 7 Furlongs: with the Continuation to Huntspill Com. Somerset. Containing 29 Miles 2 Furlongs.

In which you are to avoid these forward Turnings.

I. At 81'1 the Left to the Devizes. II. 82'2 the Left to BATH. III. 88'1 the Right in Caln to Malmsbury. IV. 94 the Left in Chippenham to BATH. V. 107'1 the Left to BATH.

In the Continuation to Huntspil.

II. At 13'5 the Right forward to Church-hill. II. 18'7 the Right to BRISTOL.

III. 19'3 the Right to Uphil. IV. 21'0 the Left to Baddefworth. V. 29'5

the Right to Castle Brent. VI. 29 the Left forward.

IN Part I we conducted you by Hungerford at 73'7 and by Ramesbury, at 75'2, to Marlborough, alias Marlberge, so call'd from its Chalky Soil, and Anciently Cunesium, from whose Ruins it took Rise, and was once Fortisi'd with a Cassle by K. John Sir nam'd Sans Terre: Here was once held a Parl and a Law made for suppressing of Tumults, retains the Title of the Statute of Marlborough: 'Tis at present a good Town Govern'd by a Mayor, 12 Aldermen, 24 Burgesses, Gr. Elects Parl. Men, and gives Title to the Earl of Marlborough: It has a Mt. on Saturdand 3 Fairs; cantains 2 Parish Trades chiefly in Cheese; and since its last Con-

Ragration (for it has often fuffer'd by Fire) is handlomely rebuilt.

Leaving the Town at 75's and the Lord Seymour's-House, with its fine Mount, as also Kennet fiv. on the Left, pass on the same Hand, Presource, Manton, Clatford. Fifield, and Overton; Viewing, many great Stones dispers'd vulgarly call'd The Grey Weathers. Thus a Desc. leading to little Kennet at 80'3 giving Name to the Riv. (which rising near Abury, crosses the R. 2 F. hence) you come to Silbury-Hill. Noted amongst those other Eminent Hills of the County, viz. Badbury, St. Ann., and Martensal: Here the Road to the Devizes and Wells lying on the Left, enter Mariborough Down; and at 81's Beckinton alias Beckbampson V. the R. to Bath, by Sandy-Lane, appearing 5 F. farther on the Left; Whence over the Downs, repeated Asc. and Desc. by Cheril, on the Right lead at 87' to Cumerford-Br. over Coln for and 4 F. beyond, to the Town of Caln, on the said Riv. dirty and discontinu'd; but Electing Burgesses to Parliament and having a Market on Tuesdays.

Repassing the Riv. in the Town, which you leave at 83'2 one M. farther, pats to Studley Br. cross the Coln again, and alcend a Hill of 3 F. whose Top gives a different Way on the Right to Chipnam: Then proceeding thro' Studly V. at 90'7 desc. along a Stone-Causey at 93'3 to Chippenham, vulgo Chipnam, of 7 F. on the Avon; over which it has a fair Br. of 16 Arches: 'Tis a good Thoroughfare, Electing Parl-Men, with a noted Mt. on Saturd. Hence an easte Asc. leads at 96'2 to a well beaten R on the Right as far as Sodbury (and thence by Aust-Ferry into Wales.) Then at 98'7 crossing a Valley and a Brook, at 100'3 leave Wrax-Hall Ch. on the Right, and enter Glocesters. at 101'3 as also Marshield at 102'5 of 4 F. situate in a great Corn Country, and on the Woulds, with a Mt. on Tuesd. Whence a straight R. by Cold-Easton on the Left, at 106 to Tughil a Desc. yielding a fair Prospect over the Severn into S. Wales: Then at 110'4 over Barton-Hill, pass thro' King's-Wood, affording store of Pit-Coal, and by Dungeon Cross enter Bristol at 114'2 by the way of Lamfords-Gate.

BRISTOL a City and County on Avon flv. (where it receives the Frome) over which is has a frately Br. is a Corp. fending Burgesses to Parl. and govern'd by a Mayor, Alderme 1, 2 Sherists, &c. 'Tis Computed Equal to a 10 th. part of London, but enjoys a whole 7th part of its Trade; and contains 11 Parish Ch. besides the Cathedral founded by Robert Firz Harding, Son to a K. of Denmark, Dedicated to St. Austin, and supply'd with regular Canons. It was made an Epil-copal See by K. H 3. with 6 Prebends, andhad a Castle in the N. E. part of it, Demolish'd in the late Wars, and since Built into fair Streets. 'Tis encompass'd with a Wall, and Six Gates; its Principal Key is upon the Froom, (whither Ships of about 150 Tun arrive (extending from Froom-Br. to the Marsh; the other call'd the Back, upon the W side of the Avon, begins at the great Br. alias Bristol-Br. and extends likewise to the Marsh, the greater Vessels riding in Hung-rode about 3 M. below.

There are about 200 Sail belonging to the Port, and the chief Trade is manag'd from Wales, and the Midland-Countries. They also keep a Weekly Correspondence with Southhampton; dealing chiefly in Tobacco and Sherry. The Streets are Uniform, the Houses well-built, and the Inhabitants Numerous; so that it may well be reckon'd the 2d. City of the Kingdom; its Mts. on Wednesd, and Savurda Plentitully provided, and its Fairs on St. James's and St. Paul's Day well frequented.

The Continuation to Huntspil.

We begin our Computation from the High-Crois in Briftol, which like another Standard in Cornbill, is the Conjunction of 4 Eminent Streets, whence down High-Str. over the Brienter somerfeish. Then thro' Redcliff street at 7 F. leave the Town and 2 F. farther, pass thro' Bedminster V. of 2 F. At 2'7 Descend for 5 F.

and at 4 M. leave Dundrey situate near 1 M. on the Right.

At 5's Ascend 6 F whence an uneven R. brings you at 9's to a Desc. of 1's crosting Perry-Br. and at 12M. passing thro' Langford V. Whence a continu'd ridg of Hills on the Left extends to Axbridg, which you enter at 18M. 'Tis about 4 F. long consisting Principally of one Street; is Govern'd by a Mayor, Go. has a good Mt. on Thursd. and is situate under the Mendip-Hills near the Chedder-Rocks. At 19 M. come to Crose V. of 3 F. at the Town's end crossing Ax fiv. and M. beyond, pass thro' Lower Were V. of 2 F. At 23'6 pass by East-Brent on the Right, and at 26'2 thro' Burnham V. in the Brent-Marsh: At 27'4 leave Burnham-Ch. on the Sea-side about 1 M. on the Right crossing High: Bridg, and by several Houses, at 29 M. enter Hunt spil, vulgo Hinspil, near Parret fiv. about 4 M. below.

Bridgwater, and near its Influx into the Severn, a good Country-Town, tho' not Dignify'd with any confiderable Character.

Backward Turnings to be avoided.

F. from Huntfill the Right forward to Marke. 5 F. short of Burnham the Lest. At the end of Axbridg the Lest to Were. At 2'1 beyond Perry-bridg the Right to Winford. At the end of BRISTOL the Lest to GLOCESTER. At 4'4 short of Cold Aston the Lest to Dynton. At 2'3 short of Cold Aston the Lest forward. The Right in Chipnam, a different way to Marlborough. 4 F. short of Studies the Right to the Devises.

At 5 Miles you are at Upper Deptford, which with Lower Deptford makes a large T. noted for its Docks, Store Houses, &c. At 5'3 is an Aic. to Black. H. where at 9M a Corner of the Brick Wall enclosing Greenwich P. comes up to the R. on the Left, and at 6F. distance lies Greenwich; a large pleasant T. on the Banks of the Thames, Ennobl'd with a Royal Palace: On that Heath Wat the Tyler or Helier, Muster'd near 100000 Men Anno 4R. II. Fack Cade who call'd himself Martimer Encamp'd here Anno 28. H. VI. and Anno 1497. 2000 of the Cornish Rebels were here kill'd, and the rest Defeated.

At 8M. Shooter's Hill alcends for about 7F. and its Top affords a fine Prospect into the 2 adjacent Counties: Whence descending pass thro' a W of 1M. at 11 M. enter Welten V. and at 13'4 Grayford on Gray stv. a good Country-T. of 3 F, whence a direct R. at 15'2 to a Desc. leading to Darisford of 6F. on Darent stv. near its Instruments into the Thames; a large T. with good Inns, and a plentiful Mc. on Saturd. for Corn, Gc. and 2 Fairs. Then, by Stone Ch. on the Lest, the R. by several Asc. and Desc. brings you to Stone-bridg within 1 F. of the Thames, just at the beginning of Gravesend-Reach; from which a small Asc leads to North fleet V. of 3 F. with a Market on Tuesdays, from Easter to Whitsontide.

At 22'2 pais within 4F. of Gravelend, leaving it, the 2 Wind. Mills and Beacon on the Left: At 24'1 enter Chalk street of about 2F. and at 25M. leave the Chaon the Left: alcending Gag's Hill at 26'1 whose rise continues 4F. Thence thro' a W. you come to the bottom of the Desc. at 21 M. and 1M. farther to Stroud 5 F. upon the R. reputed the Suburbs of ROCHESTER, thro' whose stately Bridg over Medway stv. a short turn on the Left, leads up the Principal Street of this ancient, tho' now small City, yet well Inhabit d, and Govern'd by a Mayor, Recor. 12 Aldermen, 12 Common-Coun cil-Men, &c. It Elects Burgesses to Parl. and gave Title to Fohn Wilmot Late Earl of Rochester; having 2Mts. on Wedneld. and Frid. and 2Fairs: From the E. Gate continu'd Buildings extend to the Medway on the Left, and so to Chesban vulgo Chatham, Eminent for its Deck, and for being as it were the Repository of the Royal-Navy: Thus this City, may be accounted 2'5 long; since we leave Chatham but at 31's where a Desc. succeeded by a larger Rise, and a direct R. but somewhat Woody, brings you at 35 M. to Raynham V. of 2 F. sollow'd by straggling Houses, for about 1 Mile.

At 37' yenter Newington freet about 2F. and Key freet another V. whence several Buildings lead at 41 M, to the middle of Sitting born, a noted Thorough-sare, with 2 Fairs; the R. past on the Lest leading to Milton a Mt. T. on the S. W. of the Isle of Shepway, about 2M. distant: Thence thro' several. Vills. as Baschild at 42'1 Radfield street at 43 M. and Green-street at 43'6 you come to the Top of an Asc. at 45'5 on which stands Ostring Beacon. At the foot of the Hill, the acute Way on the Lest, leads to Fever sham, 12 F. distant, a large Mt and Post-T. Asterwards passing Boston-Ch on the Right, a Descont fleed to Boston or Bancon-street, alias Bauton under Blean from the adjacent Hill so call'd; a good Thorough-sare of 4 F.

On the topof the Blaneat 51's a Woody open Way lies over the Hill to the bottom of the Descat 55's. Whence passing by straggling Houses, and thro Harpledown at 55's you enter CANTER BURY an Eminent City, said to be built 900 Years before the birth of J. C. and at the first Plantation of Christianity among the English by Austin the Monk, made an Arch Episcopal See; the Ar-Bp. of which is Primate and Metropolitan of a 1 England, and the first Peer of the Realow; This City pleasantly Pleasantly seated on Stour Av. shews one of the Statelies Cathedrals in England; Contains 14Parish-Ch. and is Govern'd by a Mayor, Recorder, 12 Aldermen, and 24 Common-Council-Men, &c. Having the Election of Burgesses to Parl. and 2 Mts. on Wednesd. and Saturd, and 4 Fairs: Thence at 57'2 pass Bishops-Court Br. at 59'4 and from 60 to 61 Sir Anthony Auchers's. P. on the Right; so over Barbam-D. and an Asc. at 63 M. an enclos'd Way leading to Lydden V. Whence passing thro a Valley at 68'6 you come to Ewel and so to Buckland at 70M. Ent'ring DOVER, at 71'1 a Place well Fortisy'd both by Art and Nature, and Defended by a large and strong Castle. It enjoys large Immunities, is one of the Cinque-Ports: Gave Title to Fohn Carew Earl of Dover; and yields a Prospect to Calais in France, to which it is the readiest Passage; the Chanel here being but 7 Leagues over: 'Tis Govern'd by a Mayor, 12 Jurats, 37 Common-Council-Men, &c. Had once 7 now but 2 Parish-Ch. 2 Markets, and 1 Fair.

EXETER, or Excesser, a large compact and well Inhabited City, call'd by Ptolemy, Isca; by Antoninus, Isca Damoniorum; by the Saxons, Exanceasser and Monketon, a Monachis; by the Britains, Caer Isk and Pen Caer: It stands on a small Asc. and on the Banks of Ex slv. 1 M. in Compass, containing 15 Parish Ch. besides the Cathedral, which is a fine Structure. The Walls were first Built by K. Athelstan, with 5 Gates: Near the East-Gate are the Ruins of Rugemont-Casse, formerly the Palace of the West Saxon Ks. and after of the Earl of Cornwall: This City has been much harass'd and spoil'd, viz by the Danes, the Earl of Devonsh. Perkin Warbeck, the Cornish. Rebels, and the Parl, Forces, and it's River Choked up by the said Earl, so that at present the Goods are Loaded and Unsoaded at Topsham, about 3 M. distant: Yet it continues in a stourishing Condition, drives a good Trade, and is well frequented by Merchants, Gc. Tis Govern'd by a Mayor, Recorder, 24 Aldermen, Gc. sends Burgesses to Parl. is Dignify'd with the Title of an Earldom, has 2 Great Markets. on Wednesdays and Fridays.

Over a fair Stone-Br. cross the Ex, and at 174'3 thro' Affington-V. of 2 F. Then ascending and descending thro' Shillingford V. at 177'1 come to a Hill of 9F and crossing a Valley go down another of the like extent. Whence again cross a Valley to Chidleigh or Chidles, of 3 F. on Teign flv. having a good Mt. on Saturd. Thence cross the Teigne descend a Hill, leave Bovy-Tracy-Ch. on the Right and Knighton on the Left, pass by several Houses, and New-Inn on the Left, and over a Hill come to Beccington-V. at 187'6 whereyou cross Leman slv. and ascend a small Hill, Leaving Dorchester, pass between Monketon Ch. on the Right, and Herrington House on the Lest, each distant 2 F. At 125'6 ascend 3 F. and at 126'7 descend 4 F. Then omitting the forward Way on the Lest, which unites again at 129 M. pass by several Houses, also by a Sweep-Well on the Lest, and a Wind-Mill on the Right, to Melcomb-Regis at 131'7 join'd to WEYMOUTH by a Wood-Br. They are seated on an Arm of the Sea, and formerly were 2 distinct Corp. but upon account of their Law-Suits, were by Ast of Parl. under Q. Elizabeth incorporated in one, by the Name of a Mayor, Aldermen, &c. Both Towns had very small Beginnings, till of late by the convenience of their Harbour, they have arriv'd to great Splendor; each sending 2 Burgesses to Parl. In Weymouth the Chappel stands on a Rock so steep, that 'tis ascended to by 60 steps. They have 2 Mts. viz. on Tuesdays and Fridays, and drive an indifferent good Trade to France, Newsound-Land, &c.

South from Weymouth, lies the Isle of Portland, taking its Name from one Port a Saxon. 'Tis about 7 M. in Compass, well Fortify'd both by Art and Nature; and gives Title to the R. H. M. Benting, Earl of Portland, &c.

TROM London to Golchester; [as in the Harwich-Road] thence at 53'3 thro' Ardley-Oak-V. (Ardley-C. on the Right 6 F.) pass by several Houses on the Road, and at 56's descend, leaving Langham on the Right; also a little farther, Dedham on the same Hand 4 F. and Boxsted on the Left 2 F. Then cross stour fiv. to Stratford street-V. where by the Church on the Right, at 57's and Brantham at 58'2 on the same Hand; travel thro' a hollow Way call'd Wenham, leaving the Ch. 4 F. on the Left: At 61'6 having Capel-Ch. at a small distance on the Left, come by the White-Horse-Inn on the Left, and a Coppies on the Right. At 63'3 thro'

White-Elm-V. and 5 Furlangs farther, by Copdock on the Right.

Thence an indifferent straight Way crossing Hanford-Br. over Gippe or Ormel fiv. leads at 67'4 to Ipiwich, in Saxon Gyppwic and Gypes-wic, so call'd perchance from Gippe or Gyppin flv. from Geap incurvus, Flexulojus, alluding to its winding Course: The Town extends from St. Matthews to St. Helens near 1 M. on the Road, and as much from N-to S. and is pleasantly seated on the said Piver, over which it has a Br. leading to that part call'd Stoke. 'Tis a Place of great Antiquity, once fenc'd about with a Wall or Rampart, the Foot-steps of which are still to be seen. It had 800 Burgesses in K. Edward the Confessor's time, with 6 or 7 Monasteries, but at present 'tis divided into 4 Wards, containing 12 Parish-Chs. besides some Chappels yet flanding, and 7 or 8 other Chs. and Chappels long fince ruin'd. 'Tis also a Corp. enjoying several Privileges, sending Burgesses to Parl. and holding Pleas for all Actions, &c. 'Tis govern'd by 2 Bayliffs, 10 Portmen, 24 Common-Council-Men, two Chamberlains, a Recorder, Town-Clerk, &c. It drives a good Maritime Trade, has 6 Mts, for Flesh, Fish, &c. with several Gaols for Felons and Debtors: The Quarter-Sessions for Ipswich-Division are held in this Town, which is noted for the Birth of Cardinal Wolfey. Here are also 2 stately Houses, viz. one of the Viscount Hereford, and another built by J. Sackvil some time Master of Requests, besides a fair Guild-Hall, 2 Hospitals, a Free-School with a good Library, several Alms-Houses, and a convenient Key and Custom-House.

From Ipswich, the Way is generally Heathy, at 70'1 leave Reshmere-Ch. on the Lest 4 F. at 71'1 pass by Kesgrave on the Right, then by a Beacon and Saxford-Hall on the Lest. At 74'1 thro' Mertyssham-V. having an Inn or two, enter Woodbridg at 75'2 of 4 F. on the Road, a large Town on Deben stv. about 6 M. from its Inslux into the Ocean. It drives a good Trade with several Ships, Pinks, Hoys, &c. Their chiefest Commodities are Butter, Cheese, Sack-cloth, Plank, &c. which are transported to divers Countries. Here the Quarter-Sessions for the Liberty of St. Etbeldred and Audry are held, with a considerable Market on Wednesday, especially for Hemp.

Thence at 56'5 thro' Milson-street leaving the Ch. a little diftant on the Right, and by Ufford-Ch. 2 F. on the same Hand, at 78'1 pass thro' Ufford-street. Whence a straight Way by Pestrie-Ch. on the Left, at 79'7 to Wickham alias Market-Wickham an indifferent large Town, tho' now destitute of a Mt. 'Tis noted for the General and Spiritual Courts held here by the Arch-Deacon of Suffolk, for the Eastern part of the County; and for its Spire, a Sea-Mark to Sailors.

At 80'4 cross Wickham-Br. 2 F. farther, passing thro' Parham-Ash-V. and at 82'4 thro' Marisford-V. Glocestersh. Monmouthsh. Herefordsh. Shropsh. and Cheshire, include the whole Road; and the Froom, Severn, Wye, Trothy, Monow, Arrow, Lugg, Temd, Corve; Oney, Mele, Roddon and Dee, are the Principal Rivers cross'd over. The Way to Monmouth not very pleasant, nor indeed, throughout, being generally rough, hard, and uneasie, even to the end. However, the Goodness of the Towns pass'd thro', make some amends for the Fatigue of the Journey.

FROM Pristol thro'St. John's Gate and over Froom Br. go up a steep Ascent, leaving the Gallows on the Right, pass by several Houses, at 3 M. descending to Westbury V. ascend again; whence an enclos'd Way by some straggling Houses leads at 7 M. to Compton V. Then over Swansey Com. by Knowl House and Aunsbury Ch. 6 F. on the Right, an open Way lies over several Dikes, and by some Houses to Eylberton at 10'3, and at 12 M. to Aust Ferry (where on the Right, are 2 Houses for Entertainment of Passengers when the Boats are not ready) a Passage near 3 M. over, to Batesley vulgo Beachley V. with 2 very good Inns.

Hence between the Severn and Wye at 16'4 avoid the forward Way to Micheldean, and bear to the Left, by several Houses. At 17'2 descend, and at 17'6 cross the Wye over a large Wooden Br. to Monmouths. and Chepstow, in British Castle-Went, an ancient Town, said to be rais'd out of the Ruins of Venta Silurum. It stands in a Bottom on the said Wye, near its Constuence with the Severn, and was formerly wall'd. 'Tis at present fortify'd with a Castle and Garrison, has a Mt. on Saturd. (sormerly very considerable, but now with the Town much decay'd) and 3 Fairs, viz. on Frid. in Whitson Week, August 1. and Frid. before St. Luke's Day.

The River Wye rifes on Plinillimon Hill in Montgomerysh. passes by Ryardergowye, Bealth, Hay, Hereford, Ross, Monmouth, and this Place, and by Batesley falls into the Severn Sea; receiving into it, 1st. the Darwen, 2d. the Clarwen, and therein the Clarthy and Eland, 3d. the Ithon, and therewith the Comaron, Clawedok and Hawye, 4th. the Weverny, 5th. the Irvon, and therein the Dilas, Comarch and Delus, 6th. the Edwie, 7th. the Machwie, 8th. the Lleveny, 9th. the Dulas, BRISTOL to West-CHESTER.

PART II.

Commencing at Ludlow in Shropshire, and Extending to West-CHESTER aforefaid.

Containing 96 Miles 7 Furlongs.

In which the following Turnings are to be avoided.

At the End of Ludlow, the Right to Henley and Sutton. 76'4 The Left to Lady-Chaulton,

N Part I. we proceed to Ludlow on Temd and Corve fiv. a large well built Corpand Mt-Town; containing 4 Wards, viz. Caftle-street, Broad-street, old-street, and Garford and Corve-street. Parl-Men are here chosen, and the Court kept for the Marches of Wales, with liberty of Hanging and Drawing distinct from the County: The Town is fortify'd with a Wall having 7 Gates, viz. Garford-Gate, Corve-Gate, Liney-Gate, Dinam-Gate, Mill-Gate, Broad-Gate and Old-Gate, and a strong Castle; also beautify'd with a fair large Church formerly Collegiate, befides an Alms-House for 30 Poor People: 'Tis govern'd by 2 Bailiss, a Recorder, 12 Aldermen, 25 Common Council Men, &c. and has a great Mt. on Mond. with 3 lesser on Wednesd. Frid. and Saturd. and 4 Fairs, viz. on Wednesd. in Whitson-Week, August 10. Sept. 17. and Novemb. 25.

From Ludlow, crossing the Corve, pass by Stanton-Lacy on the Right; Bromfield on the Left; and thro' Onibury at 80'5. Then by Stoak-Church, Castle and P. on the Left, and thro' Newton at 83'4: At 84'1, set forward by the Red-Lyon-Inn on the Right, and over Ony flv. at 84'6 by Winstanstow-Ch. on the same hand at 85'3; till by a Wood on the Left, and some Houses on the Rt. a straight Way leads at 89'5, thro' little Stretton, (several great Hills appearing on the Right and Left) and at 91 M. to the entrance of Ch. Stretton of 4 F. on the Road, having a

Beyond the Town, leaving Sir George Norton's House on the Lest, at 92'3 pass thro' All-Stretton V. and at 94'3, Leborwood-V. most on the Right, there crossing Quenny stv. at 96'3 leave Sir R. Corbet's House on the Rt. and at 98 M. go thro Dedington-V. Then by Stapleton-Ch. on the Lest, and over Puley-C. at 103'3 cross Melestv. near its Conjunction with the Severn, whence by Bracemeal-Ch. on the Lest, come at 104'5 to Shrewsbury lying this way 10 F. on the Rt. but more transverse; 'Tis a large well built Corp. Mt. and Shire-Town, formerly noted for its stately Abbey; that and the Castle being built by Roger Earl of Monigomery. 'Tis sortify'd both by Art and Nature, having a strong Wall and Bulwark, with Gates, Towers and Bars: 'Tis also well-inhabited both by English and Welsh; and drives a great Trade in Cottons, Frizes, Cloths, &c. sent thence to London.

Leaving Shrewsbury, you have Battlefield at 108'4; Hadnal at 110'2; Alton-Rynol, St. Vincent Corbet's, at 112'6, and Lee at 115'2; all on the Left; but passing over Hadnal-H. and by Bosford-W. at some distance on the same Hand, at 115'2 cross Roddon tv. which rising on the Edg of Flintsh. where it joins to this County, passes by Wem, Morson,

Morton, Corbet and Charlton Castle, and receiving the Tern, and several other smaller Brooks falls into the Severn, near Accham.

At 115'4 observe a Road on the Lest to Wem, a Mt. Town about 2 M. distant, and over Prees H. at 120'1 pass thro' part of Prees; the main Body of the Town lying on the Right. Thence by Prees Lodge on the Right also, at 125'2 enter Whitechurch of 2 F. near the Confines of the County, with a good Mt. on Fril. At 126'7 cross Crinsley Br. over a Brook, to Cheshire, till passing by some Houses, you have Mr. Dod of Bellow Hill's House on the Lest, and the Bell-Inn on the Right.

At 129 M. ascend Callow Hill, pass by Masson and Birch Houses on the Lest; and leave Coffir Hill on the Right. At 131'3 you have Hampton Post on the Right, and the Black Griffon-Inn on the Lest. Then by Varne and Eutterson Hills on the Right, also by Mr. Bird and Mr. Dod of Broxon's Houses on the Lest; at 136 M. Puck-House appears on the Lest; 4 F. farther, crossing Thouley Gr. leave the Plume of Feathers-Inn on the Right, and Ihouley-Oak

At 138'1, having Hanley Ch. on the Right; over Milton Gr. Golborn Br. Hatton H. and by Routon V. on the Left, and Glassboufe-Inn on the same hand, fall in with the Road from London at 144'6. Two F. farther, enter the Suburbs of CHESTER, and 4 F. beyond, the City itself, on Dee or Deva fiv. over which it has a fair large Stone Br. sustain'd by 7 Arches: At each end of the faid Br. is a Gate, the chief of which is call'd Water-Gate, where Veffels of con. fiderable Burden did formerly arrive; but fince the choaking up the Channel, it will scarce bear small Boats, so that the Ships come no farther than New-Key, about 6 M. diftant. Befides its 4 Gates it has 3 Pofterns, and on the Wall le. veral Watch-Towers and Battlements for the placing of Ordnance. The Cathedral was founded by Leofricus, an Officiary Count in these Parts, who dedicated it to St. Wereberg, but was repair'd and beautify'd by Hugh Lupus. This City was made a County Corp. by K. Henry VII. and under K. Edgar was in good Effeem; when 7 Monarchs of the Scots and Eritains, paying him Homage, row'd his Barge from St. John's to his Palace; Himfelf, as Supreme Lord, hold. ing the Helm.

Not far from hence, is the famous Forest of Delamere, in which Edelsed the renown'd Mercian Lady, built a small City, long since ruin'd; the Place is now call'd by the Inhabitants, the Chamber in the Forest.

Backward Turnings to be avoided.

1. 2 F. from Chefter, the Right acute, the Left to Namptwich, &c. II. 1 M. beyond Glass-house-Inn, the Left to Warton. III. Against Thouley-Oak, the Left to Tatton-Hall. Whence at 36'4 over the Yeovel, about 2 M. below Ilebester, come to Longlode of 6 F. At 38'2 pass thro'a Village of 2 F. and at 39 M. to Martock, which with Bower V. adjoining, extends 12 F. on the Road, but most on the Right. 'Tis a good Town on a Branch of the Parret, and over-against it appears Hamden, a noted Hill, I Mile on the Lest.

From the Town, pass between Norton and Chisselborow'on the Left, also by S. Petherton, a Mt. Town on the other fide the Parret, on the Right; and at 43'6 thro' W. Chinock V. of 3 F. Then over Bow Br. crofs a Branch of Parret flv. by Meryot, beyond the River on the Right: Whence ascending 4 F. and equally descending, at 46'6 enter Crookborn, or Crookhern, of 3 F. and as much transverse; a good Mr. Town, on the great Western Road.

Thence by several Houses on the Road, crossing the Parret at 48'2, 1 M. beyond, come to Dorseish and after a small Asc. at 49'5 to S. Parret V. of 3 F. Then ascending a Hill of 11 F. leave the Long Ash on the Lest; a straight Way leading by Cross-comb Ch. 4 F. on the Left, by Esq; Penny's P. on the Right, and by the Three Sisters, certain Trees so call'd at 54'4. 59'6 enter Maiden-Newton V. of 2 Furlongs.

At 61'4 pass-thro' Crokeway V. and 6 F. beyond, to Framton of Frampton of 4 F. on the Froom, a Riv. well ftor'd with Trouts and other Fish. The Town has a small Mt. on Thursd. at the end of it cross the Froom, and ascend a Hill of 4 F. Then over a Valley at 65'4 come at 66'7 to Stapleton V. Whence over a Hill of 5 F. with a small Desc. at 68'2 ascend 3 F. equally descending; till by Frier-Waddon on the Right, and several Houses on the Road, an indifferent straight Way leads at 73'7 to Melcomb-Regis, and at 74'3 to Weymouth, united and incorporated together. They are tituate on the Southermost Point of the County, near Portland-Ille, and are secur'd by Sands's-foot and Portland-Castles. This Island contains but one Ch. built so near the Sea, that for its defence, the Inhabitants were forc'd to raise a Wall about it of a great Height. The Soil produces good Corn and Palturage, but, above all, that excellent white Stone, so much us'd in the City of London, and elsewhere. There are also several good Springs, but little or no Wood.

Backward Turnings to be avoided.

At 1'0 by Stanix alias Stanwicks Ch. on the Right, an enclos'd R. leads at 2'6 to Blakeford V. on the Left. At 3'4 pass by New-Pown V. somewhat distant on the Left; leave the Lane, and enter the open Way; and such indeed, is generally the whole Remainder of the Road. At 3'7 pass by Garriston V. on the Left, and at about 5 Miles, thro' an enclos'd Way for 6 F. At 7'3 over Leven alias Line sw. falling into the Elk, and giving Denomination to Kirk-Leventon on the Right, and W. Leventon 1 M. behind, on the Left. At 8'3 by some Houses on the Right, come to Bratchneth, alias Brackenhil V. at 9'4 on the Left; at 10'2 ascend a Hill of 2 F. and by the Skirts of others, arrive at an Asc. of 3 F. call'd Netherhurst at 12'1. Whence at 15'6 pass by Kingssield V. to the Left about 3 F. and at 16'4 by Letkel V. likewise on the Left.

At 18'1 leave Stonegarth, alias Stangartick, a little to the Right, and at Kinfoftv. cross'd at 18'6 enter Scotland: Then by Kirkby-Hill, some Houses so call'd, on the Right; at 21'2 cross Liddale siv. falling into the Kirsop a little below, and both into the Esk. At 23'4 appears Costieton-Kirk 4 F. to the Lest, and 1 M. sarther, pass thro' Castleton V. At 25'6 leave Dunley-bire, a House so call'd, on the Lest; at 29'3 re-pass Liddale siv. and ascend a Hill; a little farther, ascending and descending alike. Thus, by repeated Asc. and Desc. at several distances, at 38'2 pass by the House of Sr. Gilbert Elliot, to the Right about 3 F. call'd Woodly; and keeping a Road like the former, arrive at fedborough, on fedd slu. which having receiv'd 8 lesser Streams, bearing Names; is one of the 10 principal Ones that fall into the Tioter Tivict, and that again is one of the 21 prime Branches that constitute the Tweed, so deservedly Eminent among the British Rivers.

'Tis a handsome Town of 3 F. with a small Mt. Thence at 46'6 set forward by Cralm or Crelin V. of 3 F. on the Right at 50'2, cross a Brook at 41 M. and by Kirck-Eckford alias Sackford, on the fame Hand, at 52'6 pass thro' that part of Scotland call'd Tividale, from Tiot or Tiviot fiv. with which it is water'd.

At 54's thro' Highton or Hilton V. of 3 F. at 56'7 come to part of Kelfo alias Kailso. At 57 M. cross the Tweed by a Ferry, not much below the place where it receives the Tiviot; and enter Kailfo, a well-built Mt. Town, pleafantly feated on the North-side of the said Tweed, and scarce inferiour to any in the South-part of Scotland, extending 4 F. on the Road, and as much upon the River.

Hence by Sharpitlaw on the Left, and Sproufton 3 F. diffant from 59'2 on the Right, repass the Tweed at 60's and come to Ridam alias Reddin at 62 M. on the Left, a Village fo named from Redding burn fiv. which crofs at 62'6 and re-enter England, about I'M. from its Influx into Tweed, which afterwards is the Limits of the 2 Kingdoms, dividing scotland from that Province of England, call'd Northumberland.

At 101'4 leave Malloyd, alias Manlloyd, 4 F. on the other fide of the Dowy; at 102'6 pass thro' Dinas-Mouthy V. and then over Garist fiv. Whence over several Asc. and Desc. at 107's come thro' Llanam-Mouthy V. and at 107's repass the Dowy, running from Machenleth hither, close by the Road on the Right. Then ascending Bulla-grois, a great Mountain of 2 M. go down 7 F. whence the R. holds level for 2 M. having the Mountains on the Right, and the River on the Lest. A Desc. leads at 114'3 to Pont-Ravan-Vauhan, or Lichan, a Bridg over a Brook, the Mountains still continuing on the Right, and Dee siv. on the Lest; which at 116 M. salls into the adjacent Lake, call'd Llyn segidd, alias Pemble-Meer, receiving likewise the Rivers Llue and Llavern. Of this Lake 'tis reported, that Dee siv. running thro' it, does not mix with the Waters. Salmons being never found in the Lake, nor the Fish Gwyniaid (a kind of Whiting) in the River.

The Road continues along the fide of the Lake, for 4 M. palling thro' Hantower alias Llanower V. at 117'5 and crossing the Dee at 120 M. just at its issuing out of the Lake. At 120'5 come to Bala of 2 F. on the Road; a small Town Corp. enjoining several Privileges. 'Tis govern'd by Bayliss, &c. and has a

Mt. on Saturdays.

At 130'5 cross Trowerin fiv. which rising out of a Lake of that Name, and having receiv'd the Kelyn and Monouch-dowr, falls into the Dee, a little below. At 121'6 pass thro' Llanvaier alias Llanvor V. and 6 F. farther, over Tavor fiv. the Way being very Mountainous, till crossing Gyrow fiv. at 128'7 over Pont-Mairthree

Br. you enter Denbigkshire.

At 121 M. cross Alwen fiv. which having receiv'd the said Gyrow, a little lower falls into the Dee; re-entring Merioneth h. and arriving at Bettus V. At 122'1 come again to Denbighth. over Cluyd fiv. and keeping a mountainous Road like the former, leave Clocang Ch. 1 M. on the Left. Then thro' a Wood at 139 M. pass at 140'4 to Llanvarog V. contiguous to Ruthyn, a large and well-frequented Town Corp. on the said Cluyd. 'T is govern'd by 2 Aldermen, Sc. and has a very good Mt. for Corn, Sc. on Mond. It had formerly a large Castle, now ruinous; and is, at present, adorn'd with an Hospital and Free-School, Founded by Dr. Goodman, temp. Eliz.

From Ruthyn, an indirect R. by Cluyd fiv. on the Left, and Llanganhaval on the Right, leads at 147 M. to Llang wiven Ch. on the Left. Whence ascending a great Mountain of 2 M. at the Top of it, enter Flinish. and desc. 11 F. There cross the great Holyhead R. in the Bottom; leave Skiving Ch. 1 M. on the Rt. and a little farther, Caierwis, or Cajerwis, a small Mt. Town M. on the Lt. At 156 M. by the Lead-Mines on the Left, desc. 4 F. and enter Holywell Ll, a small Town cr Village, so call'd from St. Winified's Well, lying somewhat lower on the N.E. side of it; a Place still much resorted to, by those who for their Health's sake come to bath there; as heretofore by Pilgrims paying their Devotions to the Christian Virgin Winefred, whose Name fignifies a Winner or Gainer of Peace. She was court. ed by a certain young Prince, who meeting with a Repulse, at last surpriz'd and ravish'd this beautiful Maid; and afterwards, having kill'd her, cut off her Head, which rolling down hither (as the Story goes) from the adjacent Hill, gave Rife to the faid Well. The Spring is cold, and has a fair Chap, built over it upon Pillars; on the Windows of which, is pourtray'd the History of St. Winefred. gushes forth in that Quantity, and with so great Impetuosity, that it soon turns a Mill, and empties itself into the Sea, about 1 ½ M. below. The Moss growing in the Well, of a sweet Scent, is taken for St. Winefred's Hair.

Arches cross stour fiv. near its Conjunction with the Avon, and enter Warwielsh. At 39'2, thro' a part of Strasford, cross a large Stone-Br. of 13 great and 6 smaller Arches, over Avon fiv. leaving the main Town of Stratford on the Left.

Hence again, the Way being most part open, cross some Brooks, and by a Post on the Right, at 43'1 come to Clopion P. on the same Hand, which ranges on the Road for above 1 M. Then over a Brook at 45'2, pass thro' Longbridg; at 46 M. cross another Brook, and at 47'1 enter Warwick, extending this Way 1 M. on the Road, and as much transverse, which well deserves a particular Account.

Warwick, call'd Warryngwic by the Saxons, and Caer-Guarwic by the Britains, is suppos'd, by Mr. Camden, to be the Prasidium of the Romans, where they kept a Band of Dalmatians. 'Tis a Place of great Antiquity, said to be built by Gurstungus, about 375 Years before the Birth of Christ. 'Tis pleasantly seated on Avon fiv. all the Passages into the Town being over a Water, up a Hill and thro' a Cut Rock. 'Twas fortify'd with a Wall, now ruinous; but still has aftrong and flately Castle, some time the Seat of the R. H. Robert Grevil, Baron Brook of Beauchamp-Court, &c. 'Tis a large Corp. and Shire-Town, containing 2 Parish-Chs. (besides some that are demolish'd) that of St. Mary's having several stately Tombs in it of divers Persons of Quality; the Houses are well-built, the Streets spacious and well-order'd: In this Town, the Assizes and general Quarter-Sessions for the County are held. 'Tis adorn'd with a good Free-School and Mt. House, besides a noted Hospital call'd St. fames's, founded by the Earl of Leicester, for 12 decay'd Gentlemen, with an Allowance to each, of above 20 l. per Annum, and 50 l. per Annum to a Chaplain. It drives a great Trade, enjoys several Immunities, and sends Burgesses to Parl. &c. vern'd by a Mayor, Recorder, 12 Aldermen, and 12 Ashstant-Burgesses; having agreat Mt. on Saturd. and 2 leffer on Tuefd. and Frid. with 5 Fairs, viz. on the day after the 1st Sunday in Lent, May-Day, Midsummer-Day, St. Bartholomew's-Day, and St. Simon and Fude.

Beyond Warwick, omit the forward Way on the Right to Rugby, &c. and bear to the Left. Whence Avon fiv. runs by the Road on the Right, for 4 or 5 M. At 53 M. you have Stonely Ch. on the Right 3 F. and at 54'5 crossing a Brook, leave Bagginton Ch. on the same Hand 6 F. Glocestershire, Herefordsh. Radnorsh. Stropsh. and Montgomeryshire, are the Counties pass'd thro', and the Severn, Wye, Arrow, Wadels. Lug, Temd and Onk, are the principal Rivers cross'd over; affording for the most part, a hard Way, tho' Hilly; neither is the Entertainment so good as in the forward Roads.

FROM the City of GLOCESTER cross Severn fiv. and pass thro' Over and Hum. ley (as in London to St. David's.) Whence bearing to the Left, soon turn again to the Right; cross a Valley; and leave the Church on the Right. Then pass thro' Durley-Cross V. and Lea-Line V. also by several Houses on the Road, come at 11 M. to Lea V. of 3 F. on a small Hill. At 11's enter Herefordsh. and by Weston Ch. on the Left, pass at 15 M. to Ross of 4 F. and as much transverse on Wye sto. a fair large Borough-Town, containing about 300 Houses. It has a good Mt. on Thursd. well stor'd with Corn, Cattle, &c. and 4 Fairs, viz. on Ascension-

Day, Corpus Christi, St. Margaret's, and St. Andrew's.

Thence at 15'6 over a Stone Br. of 6 Arches cross Wye stv. to Wilton V. of 2 F. and pass thro' Peterstone at 17'4. Then over Pitchers Com. and by Selock-Hentland Ch. 4 F. on the Right, also by Harwood V. at 21'3 most on the same hand; and by straggling Houses, come at 22'6 to Much-Birch V. of 2 F. At 24'3 leave Dewchurch I F. on the Lest, and by several Houses arrive at the Suburbs of HEREFORD at 27'7. Two F. farther, over a Stone Br. of 8 Arches, cross Wye stv. to the City itself, sometime containing 6 Parish Chs. besides the Cathedal, 2 of which were demolish'd in the late Civil War. The Cathedral was first built by K. Milfride, and destroy'd by Grussith Prince of S. Wales, and Algar an English Man, during their Rebellion against K. Edw. the Confessor. 'Twas re-built by Bishop Remelin and his Predecessor, to which now belong a Bishop, Dean, Chancellor, 6 Canons, 27 Prebends, a Chanter, Treasurer, 12 Vicars Choral, with Deacons, Choristers, &c. This City drives a great Trade in Gloves, transported to London; and has several well endow'd Hospitals for the Poor.

Leaving the City at 28'7 1 F. farther, cross a Brook, and leave Holmer Ch. 5 F. on the Right. Thence by several Houses, and over Rivulets, by King's Peon Ch. on the Left, thro' Knappers Green, and by Berley Ch. 2 F. on the Right. At 38'7 over a Stone Br. of 4 Arches, call'd Stratford Br. cross a Brook, where is a good Inn, and enter Pembridg at 41'2 of 3 F. a small Town on Arrow flv. with a Mt. on Tueld.

Beyond the Town, over a Wooden Br. of 7 Arches, cross the said Arrow, and 2 F. farther, a Brook over a Wood Br. the Road being indirect, Then by Shinley Ch. 4 F. on the Right, at 46 M. come to Comb V. There over a Wooden Br. cross Wadels stv. to Radnorsh. Whence a direct Road to Prestain at 47'6 of 6 Furlongs.

Leaving the Town at 48'4, 2 F. farther, cross Ing fiv. over a Wood Br. and by Fulbrook-House on the Left, pass thro' Norton V. at 49'5. Whence 3 F. farther, ascend Thence cross the Temd to Sbropsh. ascend a Hill of 6 F. at 53 M. at 55'1 descend 2 F. cross a Brook, and pass by the Rose and Crown Inn on the Right. There ascend 4 Hill of 8 F. 3 F. beyond, descend as much; and at the Bottom, enter Clun V. of 2 F. in which, over a Stone Br. of 4 Arches, cross Onk fiv. and at the End, leave a demolish'd Castle on the Lest. At 59'2 ascend 3 F. and pass by Blyn V. on the Right: Whence some Houses lead at 62 M. over a Brook, where you ascend 6 F. and leave Bishops Castle 1 M. on the Right. At 63'7 descend 3 F. and at 64'2 by Listops Most-Hill on the Right, enter Montgomers shire.

Hence 2 Desc. by several Houses, bring you at 66's thro' Red-Court V. Then by Cherstock Ch. i. M. on the Right, and by the Lord Herbert's Park on the same Hand, come to Monigomery at 70'1 on a small Asc. taking its Name from Roger de Monigomery, its first Founder, and former of more Note than now it is; having had a strong Wall and Castle, now ruinous. At present it scarce contains 100 Houses, yet is the Shire-Town, sends a Burgess to Parl. and gives Title to the R. H. Philip Herbert, Earl of Pembroke and Monigomery. 'Tis govern'd by 2 Baylists, a Recorder, &c. having a Mt. on Thursd. and 4 Fairs, viz. on March 15,

May 17. St. Barthslomew's Day, and All-Saints.

ROM the Town-Hall in HEREFORD, pass out at Bystrers-Gate, and leave the City at 5 F. At 1'7 over a Stone-Br. of 3 Arches, cross Lug fiv. and leave Lug mardine Ch. 4 F. on the Right: Then by several Houses and Wethington Ch. on the Lest, come at 5 M. thro' Shecknal V. at 7'5 to a Stone Br. over Loadon fiv. and thro' Lower Ingleton V. Thence again by several Houses on the Road, pass at 10'3 a Wooden Br. over Froom fiv. and 3 F. sarther, ascend a Hill of 6 F. Asterwards by some Houses, call'd Froome's Hill, descend again 5 F. and at the Bottom cross a Rivulet.

At 14 M. over a Brook enter Worcestersh. whence by several Houses, and 2 Desc. pass by Ausrick Ch. on the Right, and Esq; Sand's House on the Left, thro' a Wood and by a Park on the Right. At 19'2 to Sinton V. and at 26'0 to Braunsford V. of 3 F. At 21'6 over Braunsford Br. of Wood cross Temd flv. which arising in Radnorsh. passes by Knighton, Ludlow and Tenbury, and about 2 M. below this Place falls into the Severn; receiving into it, 1st. the Bradsield, 2d. the Clune, and there in the Onk; 3d. the Ony, and therewith the Warren and Stradbrook; 4th. the Corve, 5th. the Ledwick, and, 6th. the Rea.

At 24 M. come to St. John's, or Part of the Suburbs of WORCESTER, and 4 F. farther, over a Stone Br. cross Severn fiv. to the City itself, describ'd in London to Aberist with.

At 25 M. leave the Suburbs call'd Forestreet, and at 25'5 over a Stone Br. cross a Rivulet. Thence by several Houses on the R. arrive at 27'6 at Fennal-Green V. hard by Henlip-house, about 3 F. on the Right: Then thro' Part of Marton, a straight Way leads at 30'4 to Droitwich alias Durtwich, perhaps a canoso Situ on Salwarp stv. a Town Corp. noted for excellent White-Salt. It contains about 400 Houses, with 4 Chs. viz. St. Peter's, St. Nicolas's, St. Andrew's, and Dodderhil; has Privilege to Arrest for any Sum; and is govern'd by 2 Bayliffs and 4 Justices. Its Mt. is kept on Frid. besides 3 Fairs, viz. on St. Thomas's Day, Good-Friday, and St. Simon and Judo.

At 31'3 over a Wooden Br. cross Salwarp flu. at 33 M. pass thro' Upton or Henbrook V. and leave the Ch. on the Lest. Then by Grafton P. on the same Hand, repass the Salwarp over a Stone Br. and I F. beyond, enter Bromsgrove, a Mt. Town, of 6 Furlongs.

In the Town, cross Salwarp again; thence thro' Burcote V. at 37'7 an indifferent flraight Way, leads at 41'0 to Alchurch of 2 F. having a Fair on St. Lawrence's Day. Beyond this Town, cross Arrow flv. and at 43'2 pass thro' Witho, a small Village.

Hence over Witho H. at 45'2 come to Warwicks. then over Dickens H. and shirley H. and by several Houses, at 49'6 to Solibul, a Town of 2 F. formerly enjoying a Mt. disus'd by reason of a great Sickness; but still having a Fair on Lammas-Day. Thence again by some straggling Houses, thro' Hampton on the Hill, at 53'6 cross Blith stv. and enter Meriden V. at 55'5. Afterwards over some Asc. and Desc. pass thro' Ausley at 60 M. and COVENIRY at 62'6.

From that City at 62'2 thro' Forksbul, cross Sow fiv. and at 69 M. leave Sheldon a little on the Right. Hence by Sapcoat and Croft on the Left, and over several Brooks, also by Narboro and Elson on the Right; at 86 M. appears a Stone Br. of 4 Arch. There cross the Sour, and enter Leicester a Corp. Mt. and Shire-Town, of more Antiquity than Beauty, said to be founded by K. leir 844 Years before the Birth of J.C. and call'd Caer-Lerion; where he likewise built a Temple of Janus, and plac'd therein a Flamen, or High Priest, according to Geffrey ap Arthur. However, 'tis certain, that it was in Request under the Romans, and was made an Episcopal See, A. C. 680, by Ethelred, K. of the Mercians, re-edify'd and encompass'd with a Wall by the Lady Edelsted, Anno 914; which, with its Castle, are long since fallen to ruin.

Hunting tonshire, Cambridgeshire, and Suffolk, include the Road; and the Owse and Orwel are the principal Rivers cross'd over. Altho' the Way be, in some Part, sensy, and generally deep and dirty; yet, the Repetition of good Thorough-fares renders it not altogether uneasse or unpleasant to the Traveller.

Forward Turnings to be avoided.

Hence

Hence over open arable Lands, leave Holywell to the Left on the River, giving Name to the adjacent Fen, and at 8'2 pass thro' Needenworth V. of 2 F. Whence a straight open Way, arable and common, brings you to some Houses on the Left, call'd Parsonage-End, and after by Erith Ch. on the Right. Then over arable and fenny Ground, part of Holywell-Fen aforesaid; at 12'0 enter Erith, a large Town of 3 F. supply'd with 2 or 3 lins; but not enjoying the Benefit of a Market.

At 12'6 pass the first great Cut or Drain, and at 13'0 the second; where entring Cambridg fb. and leaving the Riv. bear to the Left along the fide of the Drain upon Erith Causey. At 14'6 leaving the Drain, and passing over Sutton. Fen, come to a Brook at 16 M. and ascend Ward Hill of 3 F. to Sutton, near 1 M. long, with several Cherry Gardens. Thence at 17 M. a straight and open Way by Wicham on the Left, leads at 19 M. to Wentworth alias Wingford of 2 F. at 20'5 to Wichford of 3 F. and at 22'7 to the City of ELT; faid to be built by Ethelreda, Aldreth, or Audrey, first Wife to one Tombret, a Prince of this Province, and afterwards of Egfrid, K. of the Northumbers. It suffer'd much by the Danes, but was soon rebuilt by Ethelwold, Bishop of Winchester, and planted with Monks. 'Twas made a Bilhop's See under K. H. I. whose Bishops, till temp. H. VIII. had the Rights of a County-Palatine, and still in part enjoy the same. The Diocese (formerly Part of Lincoln) includes the County of Cambridge and Isle of Ely only. The Cathedral, dedicated to St. Ethelred, is a stately Sructure, shewing a curious lofty Lanthern or Turret; yet this City is of no great Splendor or Frequency of Inhabitants.

From El?, over the Draw Br. cross the aforesaid Onfe, having Ely Common on the Left, and Ely Br. Fen on the Right; whence thro' Part of Stontnay, leaving the Hall and Chap. on the Left, come to Dulbridg at 26'4 over a Drain, and so over Scham Common Fen, arriving at 28'4 at Soham, a large Town of 5 F.

extent, very dirty, but affording one good Inn.

Hence by Soham Mere of about 1000 Acres on the Right, and over a Brook, enter open arable Lands. At 32'3 cross Fordham Br. leave Fordham Ch. on the Left, and pass thro' open Way, consisting indifferently of Arable and Pasture: At 32'4 cross another Brook, and by Red-house, an Inn on the Left; at 36'2 come to the Grange Water, and the County of Suffolk. Whence by Kennet and Kenford at some distance on the Right; at 39 M. ascend 3 F. and over Sheep-Downs; having a fair Prospect of Croxton high Trees Eastward. At 41'3 descend 3 F. crossing in the Valley Barrow Br. over a Brook, then by Saxham and Westley at some distance on the Right; at 45'5 pass by the Spittle on the same Hand, to St. Edmunds-Bury at 46'1 of 6 F. this Way; a large Corp. and Mt. Town.

Then pass thro' Rusby-Gate, and at the End of the Town East-Gate, crossing the small River, which riting a little higher Southward, passes by Midenhal, &c. Hence thro' an open Way, between Berton and Rushbrook, come to a Lane at 50'4 and between Rowbam Ch. and Place; at 52'0 thro' Beighton-Bulls V. of 2 F. leaving Beighton M. on the Right. Whence by Iostock-Hall and Ch. on the Lest; at 54'2 patsing Wulpit Water, 2 F. farther, enter Wulpit, i. e. Luporum Puteus, so call'd from a Pit in which Wolves were usually bury'd; a large and fair Town, of 4 F. on the Road.

At 55'6 ascend 4 F. having a fair Prospect round the Country. Then go down 2 F. and over the Warren by Hayley P. close by the Road, for 7 F. come at 57'4 to Hayley Newstreet V. leaving Hayley near 1 M. on the Lest. At 59'5 appears Stow Market, at the Conjunction of Gipping and Orwel siv. a large Town, with a well-stor'd Mt. on Thursd. and a Fair on St. Peter's Day. Its chiefest Trade is making of Tammeys, and it has several good Inns.

FROM Infinith thro' Gaol-Gate, or Bar-Gate, a straight Road leads at 3 M. by some Houses on the Left; after by Claydon-Hall on the same Hand; and at 4'3 thro' Claydon V. of 2 F. leaving Barham Ch. 5 F. farther on the Right. Whence by several Houses, and a Wood and Ridg of Hills on the Right, on which stands Codenham Beacon; crossing a Brook at 7'6 leave Codenham vulgo Codnam Ch. a little on the Left.

Hitherto a good Way; but for the next 8 M. less commendable. For passing by several Houses on the Road, and crossing a Brook, at 9 M. you enter the Woods, and that Part of the Way call'd the Pye-Road. When between Earl's Stonham and Apol-Stonham, and by several Houses on the Road; at 11'2 have the Pye-Inn on the Lest, and Little stonham & M. on the same Hand: There omitting the forward Way, bear to the Right, till an indifferent straight Way, but very Woody for several M. by straggling Houses on the Road (leaving Mendlesham, a Mt. at 15's to Thwait, Then leave the Church and Hall on the Left, and 6 F. far ther, pass thro' Thwait-street.

Hence by the Queen's Head Inn on the Right, and some Woods on the Lest cross a Brook; at 7'1 go out of the Pye-Road and dirty Way; pass by Stoak Chand Hall, a little distant on the Right; and at 18'1 to the White Horse in the Road directing the 4 Ways. Thence by some Woods on the Right and Lest, passing thro Taxley-street at 19'6; leave Taxley Ch. and Beacon on the Right, and Broom. Hall at 22'1, 1 M. on the same hand. Whence a Road on the Right, extends to Aye or Eye, an ancient Mt. Town, about 3 Miles distant.

At 22'4 cross Waveney stv. to the County of Norfolk, and Scole alias Of mondston, a Thorough-fare of 3 F. with 1 good Inn, viz. the White Hart, noted for its fine Carv'd Work. Here cross the Road from Bury to Tarmouth, and leave Difs, a Mt. Town, about 2 M. on the Left. Thence between Dickleburrow Ch. and Hall, a straight Way thro' a Wood, by Titshall-Mary Ch. on the Left, lies over a Common of 1 M. and at 29 M. to a Brook. Then thro' another Wood, cross a Brook again at 30'4, and thro' a third Wood by Pulham Ch. 6 F. on the Right, come at 32'6 to Long-Stratton V. of near 2 Furlongs.

At 34 M. thro' a Vill. 4 F. farther, cross Stratton Brs. of Stone, over Wentfar fw. and 3 F. beyond, pass thro' Tasboro V. leaving the Church on the Lest. Whence descending at 36 M. cross Newton Stone Br. repassing the Wentfar, to Newton V. where you ascend a Hill, and leave Newton Ch. 3 F. on the Lest. Then by Swest-borp on the Lest, Dunston and Castor on the Right, ascending and descending; and over a Heath, which was enter'd at 39'1; come to Hartford Brs. at 40'7, and at 43'1 join the Road from London. There cross Tare five to the City of NORWICH at St. Stephen's Gate, and leave it at St. Austin's Gate, lying 1 Mile on the Road.

From the City this Road proceeds over the said Heath, extending this Way almost to Hemingham, by Westward towards Lyn, and computed 100 M. in Compass; passing by a great Stone on the Right, at 45'6, and by Catton Ch. on the same Hand, I Mile distant; opposite to the branching out of the Road to Caston, or Causton. At 47'4 come to St. Faith's V. of 4 F. with a very great Fair towards the latter end of the Year; and leaving the Ch. on the Lest, at 40 M. pass by St. Faith's Newton V. on the Right. Then by a Copse on the same Hand, cross a Brook at 50'1 and leave Stratton House and Church on the Right; the sirst near, the other more remote from the Road.

At 51'2 a Pond lies on the Left; 2 F. farther, cross a Brick Br. over a Brook, and passing thro' a Village at 52 M. leave the Heath. Then by Hemingham on the Right; at 53'6 thro' Masham V. and a little beyond, cross a Rivulet or two. At 55 M. is a very good Prospect Eastward, to the Sea; and at 55'4, an acute Road on the Right, leads to N. Walsham near the Sea, having a plentiful Mt. on Thursd. Two F. farther, enter Alesham of 3 F. in length, and more transverse. 'Tis a poor Town, chiefly inhabited by Knitters, but has a good Market on Saturdays.

Then pass thro' a Village at 56'4, 2 F. farther, a Brook, and 3 F. beyond that, over Ing worth Br. cross Bure fiv. that falls into the Yare at Yarmouth. At 57'5 avoid the acute Way on the Left to Holt, and bearing to the Right, leave Ingworth and Erpingham Chs. on the Left; where entring open Arable Grounds, a fair Prospect appears to West. Whence the Road generally open, passing by Suffield Ch. and Gunton Hall on the Right, also at 61'5 by Thorpmarket Ch. on the Right, and Hanworth Cross close on the Left, leads 1 M. farther, to Routon V. of 2 Furlongs.

At 64 M. go thro' N. Reps V. of near 4 F. and at 65 M. by some Houses on the Left; 2 F. farther, descend a large Hill, and at 66'1 enter CROMER near the Sea; formerly a larger Town than now it is, containing 2 Parish Chs. one of which, with several Norfolk, Suffolk, and Essex, include the whole Road, and the Ouse-Parva, Orwel, and Stour, are the principal Rivers cross'd over. The Way, for the most part, is hard and gravelly; the Lanes being here and there a little washy, but not incommoding the Traveller, who, every where, meets with good Entertainment, and often with very pleasant Prospects.

Forward Turnings to be avoided.

At 1'4 The Right acute to Downham, &c. 10'5 The Left acute, at the Entring Norfolk. 14'7 In Swaffham, the Left to Fackenham. 19'2 The Left acute. 24'2 The Right to Brandon, at the End of Stanford. 31'5 The forward Way in Thetford. 40'2 The Left acute. 51 M. King's-Lyn, was so call'd upon account of its Loyalty to K. John and Henry III. by the first of whom 'twas incorporated, and by the latter its Privileges were augmented. It enjoys, at present, a good Maritime-Trade, being well frequented by Merchants, Tradesmen, &c.

From the Mt. Place, thro' S. Gate, passing on a Causeway, set forward thro' Hardwick V. at 1'5. Then leaving Runton Ch. on the Right, and Middleton-Hall on the Left, go thro' Middleton V. at 4'2 and by an old Castle on the Left, thro' East-Winch V. at 5'2. Whence a straight open Way leads at 7's to a Stone Br. over a Brook, and soon after, thro' Bilney V.

At 9'2 crossing 2 Brooks leave Narboro Ch. 3 F. on the Right, and at 10'3 come to Long Br. over the Riv. which falling into the Owse at Lyn, bears the Name of the Town; 2 F. farther, pass thro' Nerford V. and at 12 M. ascend 3 F. Thence over a Valley, a straight Way, at 14'6 to Swaffham, a good Mt. Town of 3 Furl.

Thence 3 Desc. extend at 18 M. to an Asc. of 3 F. where you leave cley Ch. 1 M. on the Right, and at 19'2 Great Kirsingham near as much on the Left. At 21 M.

21 M. pass by Hilboro Ch. and Hall, somewhat distant on the Lest; at 23'2 Bedney
1 M. on the same hand, on the other side of the Brook, and then by Langforth Ch. and Hall, at a small distance on the Right At 23 M. cross a small Branch of Owse fiv. uniting with it above Downham, and at 24'1 come to Standford Village with one good Inn.

Hence a straight and open Way by Tostes Ch. about 4 F on the Right, after by a ridg of Hills and Croxton P. on the same Hand, leads at 29'7 thro' Croxton V. of 2 F. there leave Croxton high Trees on the Right (which yield a very fine Prospect, especially towards Lyn) also Lylverston Ch. on the Lest, and by Clay's Lodg on the same Hand, enter Therford at 31'3 an ancient Borough and Mt. Town, on little Owse stv. In K. Edw. the Confessor's time, it contain'd 947 Burgesses, and under K. William the Conqueror's 720 Mansions; the chief Magistrate being a Consul. It still shews an high Mount which has been wall'd about and senc'd with a double Rampart; and here are still kept the Lent Assizes for the County.

In the Town, turn short on the Left, and cross the little owse, rising with Waveney sw. about 10 M. East of this Place, separating the Counties of Norfolk and Suffolk, which last is here enter'd. At 33'6 crossing a Brook, and at 34'3 leaving Barnham V. on the Left, pass by a Pond on the Right. At 36 M. leave Euston Ch. and Hall, 1 M. on the Left, and at 38'2 Hinnyton on the Right, and Frosston on the Left; each 4 F. distant; passing thro' Icks worth-Thorp V. at 39'2, opposite to which, is Euston Church without a Steeple, 2 F. on the Right. At 40'5 go by some Houses on the Left, and 3 F. sarther, to Icks worth alias Ixworth, a very good Town, lying principally S. W. on the transverse Road between Bury and Tarmouth. 'Tis an ancient Place, the Name of it seeming to retain somewhat of the Iceni; and has an indifferent Mt. on Fridays. It shews the Relicks of an old Priory; and within these sew Years Roman Coins were here digg'd up.

From Icks worth pass by Fackenham Ch. and Hall on the Right, viz. one 1 M. the other about ½ M. distant, and at 46'7 thro' a Village, part of Stow-Langtoft; the Ch. 4 F. on the Lest. At 43'7 leave Litlow-House on the Right, and at 45 M. Neton Ch. 4 F. on the Lest; after passing between Wulpit, a Mt. Town near 1 M.

Hence by some Houses on the Road, at 48'4 come thro' Wetherden V. and 5 F. farther, to Hayley-Newstreet V. of 2 F. at the Entrance into which, the Road from Bury falls in on the Right. Thence an indifferent firaight Road leads at 51'7 to Stow-Market, of 4 F. on the Road; a well-frequented Mt. Town. Whence over Orwel sto. pass Comesford at 53 M. Needbam at 55'1, Codnam at 57'5, Barham at 58'7, and Claydon at 60 Miles.

At the Entrance into Claydon, the Road from Norwich lies on the Left; from which, by Claydon-Hall, a little on the Right, a direct Way, altogether enclosed (as this last part of the Road has been likewise) brings you at 63's to Ipswich, just entring which, fall in with the Road from Colchester on the Right, and upon that part of that from London to Tarmouth.

From the Corn-Hill in Infwich, down Kings-street, at 64'5 to Stoke Br. over Gippe or Orwel flv. pass thro' that part of the Town call'd Stoke. Then by St. George's Chap. now ruinous, and some Alms-Houses on the Left, at 65'2 come to the River, and 3 F. farther, to Bone Br. where the Liberty of the Corp. ends. Whence bear to the Left along the Bank, and pass by Freston, leaving the River at 67'1, till entring the Lanes on the Right, an enclos'd Way leads by a Turret about 2 F. distant on the Left; by Chempton about 6 F. on the same Hand, and by a Gravel Pit at 70'6.

Thus by Averton-Hall and Park, at a small distance on the Right, come at 737 to a part of Skotley, the Church lying & M. to the Left; and at 74'4 by the Beacon

Norfolk and part of Suffolk are the Counties that contain the Road, and the Windfor, Yare and Waveney, are the principal Rivers cross'd over. The Way is every where very good, much open and heathy; infomuch that 'tis reported, that King James 1. once pleasantly said, He would have all Norfolk cut out into Roads, to supply the rest of the Kingdom.

Hence over a Hill of 2 F. at 10'1 by Ruffam Lodg on the Left at 14 M. come to a small Asc. at 14'2, the Way continuing Heathy. Then leaving West-Lexbam Ch. on the Right, and Great Lexham Ch. on the Left, each distant about 3 F. from the Road, pass at 17'2 to part of Lucheham alias Lycham, and 2 F. farther, thro' Lycham of 4 M. formerly a Mt. Town, but disused since its Devastation by Fire.

At 19 M. cross a Brook, and 4 F. farther part of Milebam; 3 F. beyond, entring the Town itself of near 3 F. Hence an indifferent Way, by Stanfield, Brisley, Elmbalm P. and Ch. all on the Lest, leads at 26'2 (having first cross'd Windsor sto. a little above its Confluence with the Yare) to Billing so d of 4 F. also by Beck-Hall and Baudswick on the Lest. At 29 M. arrive at Spurbam-Corner; bear to the Right, and thro' a Village at 31'2 cross the Riv. over Leonard Br. Then by Tyes-Hall on the Right, at 32'4 go thro' Marton alias Marton super Montem V. and 6 F. sarther, (repaising the River) thro' Attlebridg Village.

At

At 35'1 over a Hill of 3 F. and by Taverham on the Left, pass thro' Drayton at 37'3. Whence ascending a Hill at 38 M. and leaving Drayton-Lodg on the Right, traverse a Heath, and by a Stone-Cross on the Left, at 41'4 thro' St. Martin's Gate enter the City of NORWICH, which suffer'd extremely by Sword and Famine under K. Edw. the Confessor; and, in opposing K. William the Conqueror. 'Twas also harrass'd by the Earl of Flanders, and Hugh Bigod, A. D. 1174, by K. John for yielding to Lewis the French K. in 1216, and by the Barons in 1266. Lastly, 'twas much impair'd by Fire in 1508, and by that Arch-Rebel Ket, who pitch'd his Camp at Muswell-Hill adjoining, but being subdu'd, was at last hang'd on his own Oak of Reformation. The chief Buildings are the Mt. House, Cross, and House of Correction; besides an Hospital for 100 Poor Men and Women.

Five F. from Norwich, thro' a Village, cross Went far fiv. at 44'2 to Tromse of 2 F. leaving Bixley and Kirby at 47 M. by a Smith's Shop on the Right. Whence by Carleton on the Lest, and some Houses on the Road, at 49 M. pass between Ashby and Hellington, and at 51 M. to Thurston of 3 F. Then by Chedgrave Ch. on the Right, and Hales close on the Lest; at 55'4 leave Hocklinham Ch. 2 F. on the Lest, and 57 M. Norton Ch. and Beacon, as much on the Right; 4 F.

farther, passing thro' Thurlston V. of 2 Furlongs on the Road.

At 59% by Thorp on the Left, enter Hadsko, and fall in with the Road from London: Whence over Hadsko Dam, and Waveney fiv. come to Suffolk, pass thro' St. Glaves at 62'1, Fritton-street at 63 M. and by Belton Chap. and Bradwel on the Left, to Gorlston at 66'7. At 68'3 appears Little Tarmouth, consisting only of a few Houses about the Bridg.

At 60'3 cross Tare fiv. which a little above receives the Waveney and Bure, reentring Norfolk and arriving at Great TARMOUTH; anciently Garmuth and Fiermuth, i. e. Garienis Ostium, seated within 1 M. of the Tare's Influx into the Sea; a Place of great strength, esteem'd the Key of the Coast; incorporated under 2 Bayliss by K. Henry III. wall'd about in the 15th Tear of his Reign; and since well fortify'd. 'Tis a large and well-built Town, compos'd of many narrow Rows or Passages, and some fair Streets. As a Corp. it sends Burgesses to Parl. and is well inhabited, especially by Maritime People. 'Tis also an ancient Member of the Cinque Ports, and drives a great Trade by Herring and Mackerel-Fishing. Its Mt. on Saturd. is very considerable, for Corn, Flesh, Fish, &c. It has only 1 fair Church, sounded by Bishop Herbert under Will. Rusus, and serv'd by 2 Ministers. Altho' the Inhabitants have no Possessions peculiar to most Corp. yet they maintain a Pier against the Sea, at the yearly Charge (formerly of 500 l.) but now at 4 times that Sum.

Backward Turnings to be avoided.

Hence a direct Way to Llanvapley at 10'4 descending a Hill and croffing Trothy be over a Stone Br. Then omitting the forward Way on the Lest to Usk, a traight Road extends by Llanthewerytherch Ch. on the Lest, cross a Valley, and over a small Asc. at 13'6 to Kevenbedagor Hill, and a Desc. of 8 Furlongs.

At 15 M. cross Kenvey or Geveny fiv. over Punter-Cwyn Br. to Abergaveny vulgo Abergeny, formerly Gobannium, seated at the Confluence of the Riv. Usk and Geveny; a large and well-built Town, of about 500 Houses, compris'd in 2 Parishes, viz. St. Mary's and St. Fohn's, and 8 Wards, viz. High street, Cow street, Butcher-Rom, and Rother-street, within; Frog-More, Tider, Monk-street, and Mill-street, without. 'Tis well fortify'd with a Wall, and an Old Castle built by Cadwalader; and govern'd by a Bayliss, Recorder, 12 superior and 15 inferior Burgesses. Its Mis. on Tuesd. and Frid. are well stor'd, as also its 3 Fairs, viz. on May 3. Tuesd. after Irinity-Sunday, and September 14. It has several good Inns, and a large Br. of 15 Arches over Usk fiv.

From Abergaveny cross Kebby Brook, and at 17'1 Part of Llanwenarth; the Usk Mining by the Road on the Lest. At 18'2 over a Stone Br. and Brook, at 19'2 enter Brechnocksh. and 2 F. farther, pass thro' Llangrenay V. There over a Wooden-Br. cross Grannay stv. and 11 F. farther, Crecowel on the Usk, a small Town, govern'd by a Bailiff and 2 Burgeffes; it has a finall Mt. on Mond. and 3 Fairs, vin on May-Day, St. Thomas and St. Laurence; containing about 100 Houses, with a indifferent good Inn.

At 22'7 by several Houses on the Road, and over some Brooks leave Llami bangle-Trombdy Ch. on the Right, and by other Houses on the Road, call'd Tre sowre; at 25'6 pass thro' Ewich V. on an Eminence. Whence a straight Way leads over some Rivulets, thro' Llanfanfraid V. at 27'4, Castro V. at 28'5, and Llanhamich V. at 30'4. Then cross 2 Brooks, and at 33'6 enter Brecknock the Shire-Town of 5 F. on the Road, and as much transverse.

Beyond the Town, over a Stone Br. of 7 Arches, cross Usk flv. (which runs by the Road on the Right, as it has done from Abergevery hither on the Left) and pass by several Houses, leaving St. David's Ch. on the Lest. At 36'3 thro' Llan spetheid V. and by some straggling Houses, come at 42 M. to a Stone Br. of Arches, over the faid Usk. There enter Redbrue V. and leave Devinok Ch. about 1 M. on the Left. At 43'1 cross the Usk a 3d time, and again at 44'4 passing thro' Trecastle V. with an Inn. Then ascending Castle-Flugh Hill of 1 M. on the Road, a straight and open Way, brings you at 48 M. to Carmarthensh. Whence an indirect Road leads cross a large Valley to a Desc. at 51'3 of 6 F. at the both tom of it croffing the Rivulet Gwddig.

At 52's enter Llanimdofry, croffing Brane and Bawddwr flv. The Name fignific a Town in the Water; being fituate in the Parish of Llandingad, and govern'd by a Bailiff, and 12 Capital Burgesses, all the Freeholders being inferior Burgesses, It confifts of about 100 Houses meanly built, yet has 2 considerable Mts. on Wed nefd. and Saturd. and 3 Fairs, viz. on Decemb. 17. Whitfon-Tuefd. and St. George's Day, with several Inns. At 53'3 cross Tomy fiv. leaving Llanding ad Ch. and the forward Way to Carmarthen on the Left. Then ascending and descending seven ral great Hills; croffing divers Rivulets, and passing by some House, leave Kayo Ch. a little on the Right at 59'3, and bear to the Left. Then 3 F. farther turn again to the Right, and over 2 Brooks pass at 60'6 thro' Pinsant V. of 2

Furlongs.

At 62 M. by a Rivulet on the Right; ascend a Hill for 2 M. and at 64'7 de scend as much. At 67'6 pass a Wood Br. and Brook, 2 F. beyond, over a Stone Br. of 3 Arches, cross Tivy fiv. to Cardigansh. At 68'3 enter LLANBEDER, of Hanbedor Pont Steffan, a small Town govern'd by a Portreeve, Steward, 2 Conflables, &c. having a Mt. on Tuesd. and 3 Fairs, viz. on Whitson-Wednesd. St. Peter's, and Octob. 8. 'Tis meanly built, consisting in about 50 Houses, yet affords one very good Inn.

Backward Turnings to be avoided.

Notinghamshire and Lincolnshire contain the whole Road, and the Derbick, Trent, snire, Witham and Ankham, are the principal Riv. cross'd over. The Way, in many Places deep and clayey, not affording those Conveniencies that are to be met with in the direct and more frequented Roads.

Forward Turnings to be avoided.

TROM Notting ham, a large Corp. Mt. and Shire Town, at 7 F. afcend a Hill of 3 F. and leave a Beacon on the Left; and at 17 descending 4 F. pass thro' charlon V. At 3'1 cross a Stone Br. over a Brook, and by several Hills on the Left; come to Burton-Goose V. at 5'1 where you enter open Way Trent flv. runing for several Miles chose on the Right.

Next by Shelford Ch. the Lord Stanhope's House, and Bridgford Ch. all on the Right; on the other side the Trent, at 7 M. pass to Huntspil Br. and at 7'5 Gunstoop V. on the Left, crossing Derbeck flu. at 9'2 where it discharges itself into the Irent. At 9'7 leave Horning ham Ferry-House on the Left, and a little farther, Recton Ch. on the Right, on the other side the Riv. likewise. At 11'4 arrive at Bhasby Ferry; where crossing the Trent (which keeps on the Left to Newark) and at 13'2 ascending 3 F. enter Stoak, a large Town of 6 F. on the Road.

Thence leave Rowleston Ch. 6 F. on the Lest, over the Riv. at 15 M. Thorp V. and Hawton Ch. at a good distance on the Right; also Faringdon, between you and the River on the Lest. At 16'3 pass Marham Br. of Wood, over Snite siv. a little above its Confluence with the Trent; and 4 F. farther, to Newark, a large well built Mt. Town and Corp. extending 5 F. on the Road, but more transverse; and on the Banks of the said Trent, which rising near Moweop Hill in Staffordsh. passes by Stone-Burton, Nottingbam, Newark, Littleburge, Ganesburge and Burton, and falls into Humber Haven, near Ankburrow; having received, 1st, The Sow, and therein the Penk. 2d, The Blith. 3d, The Tame, and with it the Rea, Cole, Bourne, Anker and Mese. 4th, The Dove, and in it the Manifold, Churnet and Tayne. 5th, The Sore, and therewith the Wreak. 6th, The Durwent, and therein the Now, Burbrook, Wye and Amber. 7th, The Erewash. 8th, The Durbeck. 9th, The Snite, and therewith the Dean. 10th, The Flete. 11th, The Fosdike. 12th, The Hockdike. 13th, The Mardike. 14th, The Dun, and therein the Idle and Whitwater.

At 18'4 ascend 2 F. and soon descend, by Winthorp Ch. 3 F. on the Lest, near the Trent. Whence an indifferent straight Way, partly Lanes, and partly open to Lincoln,

Hence by 2 Posts on the Right, fall in with the Way from London at 30'3 and at Goat-Eridg, repassing the Witham, enter the City of LINCOLN, extending this Way about 2 M. on the Road, but not near so much transverse. 'Tis a Place of great Antiquity, and was formerly much larger than at present, said to contain 50 Parish Chs. now reduc'd to 15, besides the Cathedral. 'Twas of much Note under the Britains, and in Dooms-day Book; it accounted for 1070 Mansions, and 900 Burgesses, with 12 Lage-men, having Sac and Soc. 'Twas reckon'd in the Normans time, to be one of best peopl'd Cities in the Island; driving a great Trade both by Sea and Land: And here, Vortimer, the Valiant Captain of the Britains, was interr'd.

Leaving the City, enter a large Heath croffing a Brook at 35'1, and 4 F. farther, by Netilbam Ch. on the Right. Then the faid Heath leads at 38'4 to Walton V. of 3 F. opposite to which, appears Dunbam-House near 1 M. on the Right, the Way being open arable on the Left, and enclos'd on the Right. About 9 F. farther, by Ryland V. on the Right, at 41'3 come to a Wood Br. over a Branch of the VVitbam, and 2 F. beyond, to Snarford P. on the Left. There leave the Hall and Church on the same Hand, the Park ranging 1 M. along the Road.

At 43'7 pass between Lissington Ch. on the Right, and Folding worth on the Lest, whence an indirect Road, by Middle-Raising, 4 F. on the Lest, brings you at 48'3 to Ankham fiv. just at the Entrance into Market-Raising, or Rasen, of 4 F. having a good Mt. on Tuesd. for Corn, &c. Beyond the Town, enter a Moor, and at 50 M. leave Hamlinton-Hill on the Left.

At 51'4 cross a Brook to Tevelby V. of 3 F. at the End of which, ascend 2 F. and come upon the VVoulds, and over a large Valley. Whence descending at 53'6 near the Bottom, pass thro' stanton in the Hole V. of 2 F. and leave Kirmond in the Mire 1 M. on the Right. On the top of the Asc. at 55 M. a straight Way by Croxby Ch. 4 F. to the Lest, extends at 56'6 to another Desc. of 6 F. and near the bottom, to Thurganby V. Thence ascending 4 F. and crossing another Valley at 60's Ravendale vulgo Ramdale V. appears likewise in a Bottom.

Hence at 60'5 leaving the VVoulds, descend 4 F. and go by Asbye V. on the Right; 2 F. farther, crossing a Brook to Briggesty V. of 2 F. and as much transverse. At 63'2 pass thro' VValtham V. of 2 F. and at 65'2 thro' open Arable Lands to Starth V. of the same extent. At 66'5 enter GRIMSBT, or Grimsby Magna, a large Town near the Sea, where it formerly had a Castle, to secure its now almost choak'd-up Harbour; yet it is still a Corp. and Port-Town, enjoying several Immunities; as keeping Courts, sending Burgesses to Parl. &c. Tis govern'd by a Mayor, 2 Bailiss, a Recorder, 12 Aldermen, &c. The Mayor's Courts are usually kept on Tuesd. and the Bailiss's on Frid. besides 2 Mts. on Vvednesd. and Saturd. and 1 Fair on St. Bartholomem's Day.

Backward Turnings to be avoided.

I. At the End of Thurganby, the Right to Croxby. II. In Market-Raifing, the Right to Middle-Raifing. III. At the End of Lincoln, the Left to London. IV. 11 F. beyond Bracebridg; the Right to Wisy. V. The Left in Stoak, to Nottingham; a different Way.

Oxfordshire, Farksh. Wilish. and Glosestersh. contain the whole Road; and the Thames, Rea and Avon, are the principal Rivers cross dover; affording in general, no very good Way; yet well supply'd with Inns, &c.

Acute Turnings to be avoided

D Efore we proceed, let us take a view of the famous City and University of DOXFORD; a Place of great Antiquity, re-edify d by K. Alfred, and faid to be confecrated to Literature by the Old Britains; but whether translated hither from Creeklade in Wilest. as also whether the Erymology be from Vadum, Isidos, oujeford; or Vadum Fovum, Ox ford, were needless to dispute. It suffer'd much by the Saxons and Danes, little remaining, but the Monument of Sto Fridefwid's Virgin-Conquest, till K. Alfred built 3 Colleges, for Divinity, Philosophy, and other Liberal Sciences; fending thither his Son Ethelward, and, by that means, drawing to it the young Nobility from all Parts of the Kingdom. 'Tis a frately City, adorn'd with well-built Houses, 16 Colleges, 8 Halls, a curious Library, a noble Theater, and a large Cathedral; made an Episcopal See by K. Henry VIII. A. D. 1541; the Chapter confifting of a Dean, & Prebends, and 1 Arch Deacon. It contains 14 Parithes; is govern'd by a Mayor, &c. enjoys ample Immunities, as keeping Courts for all Actions without Limitation; elects 4 Burgestes to Parl. viz. 2 for the University, and 2 for the City; has 2 Mts. on Wednesd. and Saturd. well furnish'd with all forts of Provisions, Ge. and drives a great Trade in Mault, convey'd thence to Landon in Barges. Upon the whole, for Stateliness of the Schools, Theater and Publick Library; for Beauty of particular Colleges and Halls, all of fair polith'd Stone; for liberal Endowments, and large Salaries allotted to the several Profesiors; for the Number and Oeconomy of Studies, &c. it is not to be parallel'd in the Chrifian World. This City gives Title to the R. H. Aubrey de Vere, Earl of Oxford, &c. descended of one of the most ancient Families since the Conqueft.

From Cairfax in Oxford, thro' the S. Gate, at 1'4 over a Stone Br. of 2 Arches, cross Part of Thames fiv. to Barksh. Then pass by Ilsey Ch. on the Left, Hinksey on the Right, and thro' Bagley W. At 7'3 fall in with the R. from London; at 8'6 come to Fifield V. with an Inn or two, and 1 M. farther, thro' Part of King ton-

Baptist: Thence an indifferent straight R. by Longworth and Buckland Chs. on the Right, leads at 17'3 to a Desc. and at the Bottom, to Faring don of 5 Furlongs.

From Faringdon at 21'4, thro' Colefel V. of 2 F. by the Lady Prat's House on the Lest, enter Wiltsh. at 21'6. At 23 M. ascend and pass thro' Esthorp V. of 4 F. come to Himorth, of 5 F. on the R. so call'd from its high Situation. 'Tis govern'd by a Mayor, and an Alderman; has a Mt. on Wednesd. and 2 Fairs, viz. on Lammas-Day, and Michaelmas-Day.

Thence by Hannington and Bury-Flunsdon Chs. on the Right, and after, by several Houses on the Lest; at 29'4 over a Stone Br. of 2 Arches, cross Ray flv. At 30'4 leaving the R. to Tedbury and Cirencester on the Right, bear to the Lest; pass over Purton Gr. and at 31'6 thro' Purton itself. Then over Purton C. cross a Brook, and go thro' Bradens Forest. At 38'1 thro' Guersden Gr. and thro' Guers.

den V. at 39'4 by the Lady Washington's House and Park on the Left.

At 40'6 pass thro Milborn Gr. V. and at 41'2 descend 3 F. At the Bottom, over a Stone Br. cross Avon flv. to Malmsbury, of 6 F. on the R. an ancient Borough. Town, formerly defended by a Castle, now ruin'd. It sends Burgesses to Parl. and is govern'd by a Justice (call'd Alderman, and chosen every Year as a Mayor) and 12 Burgesses. Here is an Alms House founded by Mr. Genner, for 4 Men and 4 Women, with a good Mr. on Saturd. and 5 Fairs, viz. on March 17. April 17. May 25. July 25. and Octob. 17.

From Malmsbury, a straight enclos'd Way, leads at 44'6 to Foxley V. of 2 F. at the End of which, appears Esq; Rollaston's H. and Park on the Right. Whence by Sherston Ch. on the Right, at 49'1 enter Luckington V. with a noted Well in the middle of the Way. At 51 M. come to Glocestersh. at 51'6 thro' a Vill. belonging to Tormanton, and over Tormanton Warren, the Ch. and Town on the Right. Hence an open Way brings you at 57'3, down a Hill of 5 F. on which is Himon V.

with one Inn.

Then ascend a little, at 56'6 to Pulchar, alias Puckle Church, of 2 F. with several good Inns. Whence an enclos'd Way, by straggling Houses on the R. leads at 62'2 to Mangressield V. near which, are several Coal-pits; 3 F. beyond, arrive at Kingswood Forest, noted for its Coal, &c. with which Bristol and the adjacent Parts are supply'd. Then by a Pond on the Lest, and Stapleton on the Right, fall in with the R. from Glocester at 66 M. and at 67 M. enter the Suburbs of BRISTOL.

Backward Turnings to be avoided.

I. At the End of Bristol, the Right to London. II. 1 M. beyond Bristol, the Left to Stapleton.

III. 1's short of Mangersfield, the Left to Sodbury. IV. 4 F. short of Puckle-Church, the Right to Marshfield. V. At the End of Puckle-Church, the Right to Apson. VI. At the End of Himton, the Right to Marshfield. VIII. 3 F. sarther, the Right to Marshfield. VIII. 4 F. short of Purton, the Left acute. IX. 2'2 beyond Ray flo. the Right to Marshorough. X. Oxfordshire, Euckinghamsh. Northamptonsh. Bedfordsh. and Cambridgsh. include the whole Road; and the Charmel, Owse and Cam, are the principal Rivers cross'd over. This is the chiefest Road between the Two Universities, being for the most part very bad, deep Way; but the Convenience of good Thorough-fare Towns very much alleviates the Fatigues of the Journey.

Forward Turnings to be avoided.

om,

From Burcester, avoiding the forward Way on the Lest, to Banbury, bear to the Right, by Cassield House on the Lest. At 16 M. pass thro' Stretton-Audley V. and at the End of it, cross the Road from London to Banbury. Whence a straight Way at 18'2 to Bucking kamsh. Then between Newton-Pursel and Chickwood, also thro' Tingewick W. and by Tingewick Ch. on the Lest, and a Pond on the Right; at 22'5 come to Gaynat V. of 2 F. and at 24'4 over a fair Stone Br. cross Owse stv. to Bucking bam, a Corp. Mt. and Shire-Town, having 2 Hospitals, a Free School, and 4 incorporated Companies, viz. the Mercers, Butchers, Taylors and Tanners. It gave Title to George Villers, late Duke of Bucks, &c. and has 1 fair Church, dedicated to St. Peter.

Thence Onse fiv. running by the Road on the Right for several M. a straight Way, leads by Borton V. and Thornton Ch. both on the Right, and on the other side of the Onse; also by Morton, Foscor and Leckhamsted, on the Left; entring Northamptonsh. at 28'7. Then by Beckhampton Ch. on the Right, re-enter Buckinghamsh. at 30'6, and cross the said Onse. Whence by Passingham and Wulverton Chs. on the Left, and Leighton on the Right; crossing the great Road from London to Chester, Holy head, &c. come at 34'6 to a Desc. of 2 F. At the Bottom, crossing a Brook over Stanton Br. leave Haversham vulgo Hasome Ch. on the Left, and afterwards Stanton Ch. and Hall on the same Hand. Then a Desc. by Great Linsford on the Right, and Little linsord on the Left, extends at 38'3 to Newport Painel, or Paignel, of 3 F. and as much transverse. The Town is indifferent large, and has a good Mt. on Saturdays. The poor People are here employ'd in making great store of Bone-Lace, &c.

Beyond the Town, appear Mouls and Chichley Chs. on the Right; also Lathbury and Hardmere on the Left. At 44'5 pass thro' Astwood V. to Bedfords. at 45'3, and at 47 M. thro' Stagsden V. of 2 F. re-crossing the Owse at 49'1. Then by Biddenham Ch. and Fordend-house on the Right, also by Brumkam Ch. on the Left; at 51'3 enter Bedford, a Corp. Mt. and Shire-Town, where, not far from the Bridg, on the Owse, formerly stood a small Chap. in which (as they say) Offa the Mercian K. was in terr'd; whose Monument remain'd a long time, till the over-flowing of the River wash'd it away. The Town has been much harrass'd, viz. first by the Danes; next in the Civil Wars, by the Barons; and lastly, by K. Henry III. Its Castle was laid level to the ground; and, in the Place of it, is a very fine Bowling-Green, much reforted to by the Gentry of those Parts.

From tedford, by Cardington and Cupbul Chs. on the Right, also by Villington Ch. Park and Hall, on the Left; at 58 M. pass thro' Morebanger V. of 2 F. Then by Blunbam on the Left, and Sandy on the Right. At 60'7 omitting the forward Way, on the Right to Potton, bear to the Left, and by Everdon Ch. on the same Hand: At 63'0 entring Cambridgs. as its Conjunction with Huntingtons. and Bedfords. pass by Vloodberry House and Gamlinghay P. on the Left; and at 64'4 to Gamlinghay V. of 2 F. Whence an indirect Road, somewhat woody, by Stow on the Right, and Little Gransden on the Left, brings you at 69'4 to Stow V. contiguous on the Left.

At 70'2 cross the great Road from London to York, Barwick, &c. pass thro's some Woods, and down 2 Hills, leaving Kingston Ch. on the Right, and Cawcote on the Left, at equal distance from the Road. Then crossing a Brook, at 73'4 go thro's Softs V. of 2 F. on the Road; and 10 F. farther, thro' Comberton V. of 3 F. Whence by Cotton on the Left, an indirect Road leads at 79'6 to CAMBRIDGE, an University, Corp. Mt. and Shire-Town [describ'd in London to Lyn.]

Southward from Cambridge are Gogmagog Hills, of great heighth, formerly a Station of the Danes; of which, the Country-People relate many fabulous Stories. On the Top, is to be seen a Rampart surrounded with a Three-sold Trench, and reputed impregnable.

Backward Turnings to be avoided.

MARTHEN, or Caer-Marden at 60'4, call'd Caer-Firdhin by the Britains, Maridunum by Ptolemy, and Muridunum by Antoninus. 'Tis the Shire-Town, large and wellbuilt, on Towy for over which it has a large Stone Br. and Key, where small Ves. felsarrive to unload their Goods, &c. 'Tis faid to have given Birth to Merlin the British Prophet, or Sooth-Sayer; and was once fortify'd with a Wall and strong Cafile, now ruinous. 'Twas also made by the English Princes, the Chancery and Exchequer of South-Wales. 'Tis, at present, a Town and County incorp. and enbysample Immunities, as keeping Courts, Affizes, &c. and electing a Parl. Man. C. 'Tis govern'd by a Mayor, Recorder, 2 Sheriffs, and 16 Aldermen, cloth'd in Scarlet, Oc. and has 2 good Mts. on Wednefd. and Saturd. with 4 Fairs, viz. on Lammas-Day, August 23. ROM Tinmouth, cross a Brook at 6 F. by N. and S. Shields on the Left, and the Church on the Right. At 2'1 by Chillington V. on the Left, and 3 F. farther, by Chirtons V. on the Right, descend a Hill of 3 F. and by some Houses, go over a Valley at 4'4. Then by Pikewell Hall on the Left; and at 7 M. by Biker V. on the same hand, cross a large Valley, thro' Useburn V. and at 8'6 enter New-Castle, or New-Castle upon Tine, a large Corp. Mt. and Shire-Town.

Thence over a Hill of 4 F. and a large Valley, pass by Denton-Hall on the Right, and near the Top of the Hill, W. Denton V. on the Left. On the Top, thro' Pigshal V. descend a Hill of 8 F. and at the Bottom, pass thro' Newborn V. of 2 F. having the Tine on the Left, and Righton Ch. on the other fide of it. At 167 croffing a Wood Br. and Brook, and over a Hill, go thro' Wilam V. in a Vale.

Then descend another Hill, and cross a Stone Br. and Brook.

At 20'7 Prudor Caftle appears on the Left, Tine fiv. passing between it and the R. About 3 F. farther, pass thro' oving ham V. of 2 F. and at the End of it, cross a Stone Br. and Brook. At 22'2 on a Hill of 9 F. go thro' Ovington V. and at 24'4 cross a Valley, and leave Newton Ch. on the Right. Over another Vale, come at 27 M. to a Desc. of 7 F. and thro' Gorebridge alias Cerbridge V. of 2 F. Thence by a Water-Mill on the Right (where part of Tine fiv. runs in the Road) and by Sandy V. on the same hand, pass at 29 M. to Bestrick, a small Village.

Hence by Anwick-Grange, and Anwick on the Hill, both on the Right, come at 31'1 to Tine flv. which you pass over, and 3 F. farther, to Hexam or Hexbam, of above 3 F. call'd Hangustald by Beda, Alexodunum by the Romans, and Hagulstaldelbam, by M. Somner; a Town of great account in former Time, being dignify'd with an Episcopal Sea. The Cathedral was a most stately Structure, built by St. Wilfred, and posses'd by 10 Bishops successively, but being spoil'd by the Danes, the See was remov'd to York. 'Tis, at present, a well-built Bailiwick Town on the Tine, and has an indifferent Mt. for Corn, Gc. on Tuefd. 'T was formerly famous for its Abbey and Church; one of which is now decay'd, and a great part of the other was pull'd down by the Scots.

Leaving Hexham, ascend a Hill of 10 F. to a Moor, and traverse 2 Valleys. In the latter, over Haden Br. cross South Tine fiv. and pass thro Haden, leaving the Ch. on the Right. Then by Sapwood V. on the Right, also over 3 Valleys; at 41 M. descend 5 F. and go thro' Mellis V. At 42'5 thro' Slow-House V. leave Woodbil V. on the Left, and let forward thro' Mileriche at 44'4. At 45'2 afcending, cross 2 Valleys, to Haltwefel of 5 F. a Town indifferent well-built, and affording good Entertainment. At 48'2 pass thro' Redbath V. and leave Hole house on the Left.

Thence thro' a Wood, and by Blenkensop Castle on the Right, also by Goombolt V. at 50'3 Thirlwal Castle at 50'6 Long buyer Castle at 51 M. and Furley V. at 51'3 all fuccessively on the same hand. Then by Belton and Crook, 2 Villages on the Left, come at 52'2 over Poltrofe fiv. to Cumberland. There ascend a Hill of 5 F. and touch upon a part of the Pills Wall on the Right. Thence by Dearington V. close on the Right, pass thro' a Copse, also thro' Chappelbourn V. at 54'6, and cross a large Valley. At 58'7 descend a Hill, and over a Wooden Br. and Brook, leave Milton V. fomewhat on the Right.

From the Town, ascend a Hill, and $\frac{1}{2}$ M. farther, go by Dellachongrid Hall on the Right; thro' Llanyltyd V. at 37'6, and 3 F. farther, to Majgarna V. leaving Peat Moor on the Left. At 41 M. pass between Rocks, along a Woody Way; then over a Stone Br. leaving a Mill on the Right, after several Asc. and Desc. come at 47'7 to Tarapont Br. where you cross a Brook, to Llandura, a straggling Village.

Hence by several Houses on the Road, and Llanenthowin Ch. on the Lest, about 4 F. at 51'2 cross Llanbeder stv. over a Stone Br. pass by Llanbeder Ch. on the Right, and 1 M. 4 F. farther, by Llanvaier Ch. on the same Hand. Then ascending a Hill at 54 M. enter Harley alias Harlesh, or Harlegh, on a Rock, near the Sea-Shore; a small Mt. Town, govern'd by a Mayor, &c. sending 1 Burgess to Parl. and holding the Assizes for the County of Merioneth. It formerly had a strong Castle, built by K. Edward I. of so great height, that it commanded the adjacent Sea and Land, being senced with a double Bulwark. The Constable of the Castle is, by Patent, always Mayor of the Town. This Castle was a Garrison for K. Charles I. under the Command of Col. William Owen, and held out the longest, against the Assaults of the Rebels, who dismantled it. Near this Town, are two In-lets of the Sea, call'd Iraeth-Eicah and Traeth Mawr.

At 55²4 pass thro' a Village, most on the Right, at 57²2 by Llanihangle-ytrash Ch. about 3 F. to the Left, and on the Sands 4 F. farther; crossing a Brook. At 60²3 thro' a V. go on the Sands again, to Carnarvansh. Then by a Ridge of high Rocks and Mountains on the Right, at 63²4 enter Penmorvay of 3 F. At 72'4 go up a Hill, and 9 F. farther, by Llandavenay Ch. on the Left; croffing leveney fiv. At 78'3 pass by Llanunda Ch. on the same Hand; 4 F. farther, by Dinas; a little beyond, by Mr. Lewes's House, all on the Left; and over Garway fiv. on Pont. Newed, or New-Bridge, at 79'3. Whence ascending and descending, at 81'6 cross Saint fiv. leaving the Gallows on the Left, and at 82 M. come to CARNARVAN, or Carnarvon, so call'd from its Situation opposite to Mona, or the Isle of Anglesen, and Kaer'n-Arvon, by the Britains. 'T was rais'd out of the ancient City Segomium, mention'd by Antoninus; and is commodically seated on the Sea-shore. 'T is noted for the Burial of constantius, Father of the Emperor Constantine the Great, and for the Birth of K. Edward II. the first English Prince of Wales. Here also were formerly kept the charcery and Exchequer Courts for the Princes of North-Wales. The Town is well scriffy'd both by Art and Nature; tho' not large; and gave Title to the R. H. Charles Dormer, Earl of Carnarvan, &c. It sends a Burges to Parl. is govern'd by the Constable of the Castle, who, by Patent, is always Mayor; having for Assistants, an Alderman, two Bailists, &c. and enjoys a good Market on Saturdays.

Yorkshire and Lancashire include the whole Road; and the Owse, Nyd, Wharf, Are, Winning, and Hartlebeck, are the principal Rivers cross'd over. The Road in general is bad; yet, the Goodness of the Towns, and Entertainment met with, in most Places, make some amends for that Inconvenience.

Setting forward from YORK, omit the direct Way to LONDON, and bearing to the Right, pass by Ackham, Knapton, Rufford, Heslow, and Moor-Monkton, Villages; also Woolstrap Hall on the Lest, Popleton, Overton, Nun-Monkton Chap. and Hall on the Right. At 8'4 over Skip Br. cross Nid stv. pass by Kirk-hamerton, Cuthal, and Hopperton, on the Lest, and Green Hamerton on the Right; avoiding the Road on the Right to Boroughbriggs, &c. At 13'1 come to Allerton V. fall in with the London Road to Barwick, &c. and bear to the Lest, thro' Flaskey V. at 14'4 leaving Goulsburgh Ch. and Hall on the Lest. At 17's arrive at Knaresburgh vulgo Knasbrough, of above 3 F. on Nyd stv. and on a Rock. 'Tis strengthed with a Castle; is a Corp. sending Burgesses to Parl. and has a good Market for Corn, &c. on Wednesdays.

Thence Nyd fiv. running near the Road on the Left, for several M. pass by Beeton Hall on the Left, Skooton V. and Nid Ch. and Hall on the Right, and by some Lime-Pits, at 22'6 to Ripley, of 3 F. seated likewise on the Nyd, and having a Market on Fridays.

From hipley, set forward by Clynet V. to the Right; at 24'6 on Hansworth Br. over the said Nyd, and 2 F. farther, to Hempsthwate, or Hamsworth, a long Village; beyond which, come upon Grafes-Plain Moor, by several Houses on the Right and Lest. Then over Keskin Moor, leave East-End Houses V. and Straling V. on the Lest, and two long Posts on the Right.

Hence, descending and ascending, by Foston Ch. Swinsley Hall, and Bluborrow-Houses on the Lest, at 32'1 cross Washburn stv. the Road continuing over Keskin Moor. The County of Tork contains the whole Road, and the Foss, Derwent, Rye, Esk, and Harford, are the principal Rivers cross'd over. This Road is indifferent well frequented, and supply'd with good Towns, Inns, &c. It is, in general, a hilly and bad Way.

Forward Turnings to be avoided between TORK and Whithy.

Between YORK and Scarborough.

Setting forward from YORK, over a Stone Br. cross Fols flv. and at 2'7 repass it over a Wooden Br. Whence the Way, generally open, leads at 4'6 to Stockton on the Moor V. of 2 F. Hence passing over Stockton Moor, near 4 M. long, at the end of it, enter a Lane, and at 10'4 another Moor; beyond which, over Spittle Br. cross a Brook; and at 12'5, ascend a Hill of 7 F. having on the top, a Prospect to York-Minster. Then by Whitwell V. on the Right, cross two Valleys, and, in the first, a Brook over a Stone Bridg.

Hence 2 Desc. extend at 19 M. to Mater alias New Malton, of 4 F. on the Road, and more transverse; an indifferent good Borough-Town, divided into the old and New; in both which, are contain'd 3 Parish Chs. 'Tis water'd by Derwent fiv. electing Parl. Men, and having 2 Mts. viz. on Tuesd. and Saturd. the latter is esteem'd as good as any in the County; for Horses, Live-Cattle, Provisions, Sand the Lords of this Mannor keep a Market on that Day by Prescription.

Beyond New Malton, the Lord Emers's House appears on the Right, and at 20'3 old Malton of 3 F. on the Road. There bearing to the Left, pass thro' Home-Hors V. and at 23 M. over a Wooden Br. cross Rye fiv. an open Way, indifferent

I. 6 N Arable and Pasture, leading to Pickering, at 28'2 a good Town, call'd The Homew of Pickering, belonging to the Dutchy of Lancaster. It still shews the Ruins of a samous Old Castle; keeps Courts for all Actions under 40s. commenc'd within the said Honour of Pickering-Lith; and has a plentiful Market on Mondays for Corn, So.

Thence passing 2 large Asc. by Yarworth V. on the Lest, also a Desc. of above 1.1 M. at the bottom, Lockton V. appears about 2 F. on the Lest. Then ascend a Hill cross 4 Valleys, and go by Sotherg ate V. close on the Right. Whence a Desc. of 5 F. brings you at 47 M. to Sneton V. of 2 F. At 48 M. cross a Rivulet, and enter Rushworth V. of 3 F. on the Road.

o'3 mently From Rushworth, an irregular Way leads at 49'7 to Whithy, or Whiteby, i. e. Oppidum Albam, call'd by the Saxons Streamsheale, i. e. Sinus Phari, formerly of great Note for its Abbey. 'Tis, at present, a well-built Town on Esk fiv. near its Influx into the Sea. It drives a considerable Trade, having about 100 Vessels, with a convenient Custom-House; and its Mt. on Saturdays is well stor'd with all Provisions, of Flesh, Fish, Fowl, &c.

In the Road to Scarborough.

ROM York to New Malton, [as thence to Whithy] where crossing a Stone Br. over Derwent fiv. pass thro' Norton V. of 3 F. in which is Esq; Eller's Seat on the Right. Then leaving old Malton on the Left, over 2 Brooks, at 23'2 Scalle-thorp V. appears on the Left. Thence cross a Rivulet, (the Wold or great high Hills ranging along the Road for several M. on the Right) and at 24'5 come to Rollington V. of near 2 F. leaving Thorp-Basser Chap. on the Right, and Wintringham Ch. on the same hand.

At 26 M. cross 2 Brooks, by Kaneston and Knapton, 2 Villages on the Left; and at 29'5 thro' E. Haselton V. Ot 2 F. pass at 31'3 to Sherborn V. most on the Left. Then over a Brook by Browlson V. on the Right, come to Garton at 33'5 and to Staxton at 35'7, leaving Willorby Ch. on the Left, also the Wolds and Flixton V. on the Right. Afterwards pass Great and Little Harford Brs. over Harford stv. and at 38'4 to Semere V. of 4 F. Whence descending a Hill at 40'2, go by a Lake on the Right, call'd Byards Water, and at 42'6 enter Scarborough, call'd Scearburgh by the Saxons; a strong well-built Town Corp. almost surrounded with the Sea. It sends Burgesses to Parl. is govern'd by 2 Bayliss, Common-Council, Sc. has 2 Mts. on Thurs. and Saturd. and drives a good Trade; being much resorted to, for its samous Spam.

Backward Turnings to be avoided between Scarborough and YORK.

I. 4 F. from Scarborough, the Right to Falfgrave. II. At the End of Staxton, the Left to Beverley. III. Against Knapton, the Left to Wintingham.

Between Whithy and YORK.

I. 6 F. short of Pickering, the Left to Kinthorp. II. in New Malton, the Right to New-Castle.

Directions to the READER.

POR the better understanding the following Tables, in is requisite briefly to explain the Method of them.

At the End of every Line, are fet Figures shewing the true Distance in Miles and Furlongs from the Place mentioned in the preceding Line; and where Roads. Divide 'tis so expressed, with a Remark which Road is to be followed, intimating, Bear Right or Left. At every Considerable Market-Town, its respective Distance from London, and in the Cross-Roads its Distance from the Initial Towns, whence you fet out, is noted on the Left Hand, at the Beginning of the Line, within a Crotchet: For Example, (in the First Table) from the Exchange in LONDON to Kensington-Gravel-Pits are Five measured Miles, thence to Shepherd's Bush (the next Village) is 1.M. & 7. Fur. thence to Acton, 1. M. and 3. Furl. the Distance from Action to London being 8. Miles and 2. Furlongs: and so on in the same manner till you come to Wheatley. Bridge; Two Furlongs beyond which, the Roads Divide; the Right continuing on to Islip, and the Left leading to Oxford: Where the Branch to Oxford being Collateral, must of necessity be set opposite in the same Column, and so from Islip continue on the Grand Road through Worcester to Aberistmith.

And in regard, that conformably to the Description in the Book, the Great Roads are usually divided into several Parts, the Reader may take notice, That the Beginning of the second Part is always Reckoned from the Place last named in the first, and so in the Third Part, &c. the Distance being set down, as if it had been continued without any manner of Interval. Sometimes for want of Room 'tis requisite to use a sew Abbreviations, as R. for Right; L. for Lest; V. or Vill. for Village; Com. for Common; fv. for River; Riv. for Rivulet, &c.

For the more clear Illustration of these Tables, the Reader may be pleased to turn to the Description of the Respective Roads in the Body of the Book, according to the Reservence set at the Title of every distinct Road, or Part, to the particular Page in the said Book.
